

Legion president receives commemorative plaque

Stouffville Branch 459 of the Royal Canadian Legion celebrated its 40th anniversary with a banquet and dance, Saturday night. The program included several presentations including an engraved plaque received by Branch president Dave McQuaker, (left), from York North MPP Greg Sorbara on behalf of Ontario Premier David Peterson. —Jim Thomas

Pastor given time off to paint his church home

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — The sanctuary of Goodwood Baptist Church is glowing with a fresh coat of paint. The floor will be re-done this week before the pews are replaced. Pastor Gary Manzo is doing much of the work with the help of volunteers. In order to free up Gary for these extra-curricular activities, assistance in the pulpit has been provided by Rev. Jack Bart and wife Margaret and Rev. Harley Winborn. April 12 is Brigade Sunday. The speaker will be a representative of that organization.

George Archer on birthdays next week. Esther has been a patient in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital, but expects to be released soon. The Baptist Church Ladies will meet April 14 at the home of Mrs. Nancy Kidd. A noon-day luncheon will be enjoyed. A program on Easter will follow. The theme is "The Cross." Dawnna May and Pastor Gary Manzo will be honored at a miscellaneous shower, Saturday evening, April 11 in the Sunday School room of Goodwood Baptist Church. Gary and Dawnna will be married in June. Lisa Northeast and Gary Jones will be honored at a bridal shower, Sunday, April 12 at 2 p.m., in the Goodwood Community Centre. Ladies please provide. Now that the weather is behaving again, we ladies can get busy on the annual chore of turning everything upside down. It's a ritual called 'Spring House Cleaning.' Spring cleaning comes but once a year. And once again, the time is here. With broom and duster, pail and mop, A house to shine from toe to top. A daunting task ere it's begun. But oh, sweet triumph when it's done!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs.
