Broadway great's life makes hit play at Cullen Theatre

The Cullen Dinner Theatre is presenting a new show, the musical "Side By Side By Sondheim"

This Broadway hit features a review of the great modern composer and lyricist Steven Sondheim. He wrote Gypsy, Follies and West Side Story, some of his most famous works.

"Side By Side By Sondheim" was written by three starving British actors in an attempt to gain employment and to expose the public to Sondheim's work.

Through the use of narration it traces Sondheim's musical evolution as it parallels his own personal life.

Described as being 'more a show than a play', "Side By Side By Sondheim" takes you alongside the career of the most dramatic and adventurous musical composer of our time.

Running until July 4, the show features a professional cast with musical direction by Craig Wingrove and choreography by Michael Whitehead, both of whom star along with Kathleen Eyman, Steven Baker and Marni Walsh.

Located at Steeles Ave. and Kennedy Rd. in Markham, the Cullen Dinner Theatre enjoys big-city entertainment in a rural setting.

The cost is $22 for dinner and show. Performances go Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Dinner is served at 6 p.m. A luncheon theatre is also featured Wednesdays. Cost is $14.95. For information call 477-4475.
