

Lioness club cops 2 awards

Claremont Lioness Club collected two top honors at a District A-16 convention held in Oshawa April 24-26.

The north Pickering service organization was presented the Jim Biceman Trophy recognizing outstanding community service, as well as the Anne Shearer Participation Award for clubs with a membership of 19 or less. And Carole Redshaw received an honorable mention for her work editing the Lioness Bulletin. The three-day gathering attracted district members of Lions, Lioness and Leo clubs.

Lionesses are also busy preparing for their annual Strawberry Social, scheduled for Claremont Community Centre Sunday, June 21, at 12:30 p.m. Tickets costing $5.50 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12 are available from any club member.

An annual Hawaii draw and dance sponsored by Claremont Lions will be held at Uxbridge Arena Saturday, May 23, at 8:30 p.m. There'll be an elimination draw plus several door prizes. For ticket info, call Al Redshaw at 649-2342.

A teen dance runs this Friday (May 1) from 7:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. at the community centre on Old Brock Rd. South. An admission charge of $3 for those aged 13 to 19 covers refreshments and a DJ.

Claremont UCW host a spring fashion show next Tuesday (May 5) at 7:30 p.m. in the church's Sunday School room. A $4 admission charge includes The Weekender Ladies Wear show, with commentary by Karen Marks. Entertainment will be provided by Lorraine Wallace Symington's highland dancing troupe featuring Claremont's own Emily Marks. For tickets, contact Mary Borland at 649-2047.

Claremont Co-operative Nursery School Inc. holds its annual tea, bake sale and open house Saturday, May 9, from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the community centre. Everyone's invited to come and enjoy complimentary coffee/tea and muffin. There'll be a variety of bake goods on sale, plus door prizes and on-going demonstrations. All proceeds go to purchase equipment and supplies for the non-profit school.

Claremont Review

By Chris Shanahan

Families are asked to save their returnable bottles for a fund-raising drive to help several area girls play midget ball in Stouffville this season. Players Lynn Benson, Pam Evans, Lisa Kurts, Deanna Evans, Patti Evans and April Winterstein would appreciate your support.

Red Cross level swimming lessons will be offered at CedarCres

Pool on Barclay St. beginning in late June. Cost is $30 per student or a family rate (2 or more) for $25 per child. Class sizes will be limited to from three to five swimmers. Sessions are scheduled from June 29-July 10, July 20-July 31 and Aug. 3-Aug. 14. For further details, contact instructor C. Evans at 649-2438.

A reward has been posted in hopes of finding a short-haired, orange and cream-colored cat that's been missing in the hamlet since April 20. The 10-month-old male feline is wearing an ID tag and collar reading Madill, 1773 Central St., Claremont. If you have any clues, call 649-2473 (evenings or weekends).

Tomorrow (April 30) is the registration deadline for Claremont men's slow-pitch league. Forms can be obtained at the post office or by contacting John Marks at 649-3030.

T-Ball registration forms for boys and girls age 5 to 8 (as of Dec. 31, 1987) are available from Denise Norton at 649-2615. Any interested coaches or helpers can contact the same number for more information. Claremont Sports Association is charging a fee of $10 per player this season.

New clinic provides denture therapy

A new denture therapy clinic has opened in Stouffville at 118 Main St. East.

Denture therapist George Grivogianis has started the practice in association with dental surgeon Hans Jurgen Schwartz.

The clinic is something new and different and offers services not previously available in the Stouffville area, according to Mr. Grivogianis.
