Kids learn spinal care

There are no bones about Spinal Health Week.

Local chiropractors have joined together to donate booklets on spinal health care for all Grade 3 and 4 students in Markham and Unionville.

The booklets, which feature cartoon character Inspector Spine, are used to educate youngsters on proper spinal care. Chiropractors believe this will help avoid musculo-skeletal problems later in life.

Inspector Spine teaches children about anatomy, physiology, spinal anatomy, correct posture, the proper way to lift objects and how to avoid injuries during play.

The booklets can be used as coloring books and also include games and quizzes.

For more information about Spinal Health Week or the Inspector Spine program contact Dr. Eleanor White at 294-7000.
