Popular painter

Internationally-acclaimed wildlife artist John Seerey-Lester was kept busy signing prints and chatting with fans Sunday during a personal appearance at Uxbridge's Select Art Galleries. Here, the Florida-based painter signs a print for gallery employee Kathy Martindill (centre) of Uxbridge while owner Deena Kowalski looks on. A selection of re-signed Seerey-Lester prints are still available at the Brock St. West gallery. —Chris Shanahan

Auto vets at centre

Two Stouffville-area auto service veterans have resurfaced at Unirich Tire & Auto Centre in the town's east end.
 Eric Lecece is owner/operator of a new full-service garage at 374 Main St. East, while Goodwood's Pat Pacelli is a licensed mechanic who brings 20 years of experience to Unirich.
 Mr. Lecece ran a Petro Canada (formerly BP) outlet for a total of eight years, before opening Uxbridge-Stouffville Tire in Uxbridge about a year ago. The Stouffville resident plans to eventually close that store because he prefers his new location closer to home.
 "It's a little easier when people know you," he said, explaining that garage space became available in the Pioneer gas station building when Dennis Dacey of Dacey's Auto Care recently moved back to Shelburne.
 Unirich is a Uniroyal Tire distributor and also carries all other major brands, while featuring the latest in computerized equipment for balancing and changing tires.
 Business hours are Monday to Wednesday, 8 a.m.-6 p.m.; Thursday and Friday, 8 a.m.-9 p.m.; and Saturday, 8 a.m.-1 p.m.

Car rally

A fund-raising car rally rolls through the area this Saturday (May 9) as part of Multiple Sclerosis Carnation Month.
 The event, which begins at 10 a.m. from Markham Fairgrounds, is sponsored by the York-East chapter of the MS Society in conjunction with Junior Farmers and the Rotary Club of Stouffville. Registration begins at 9 a.m.
 An entry fee of $30 per car includes two tickets to an 8:30 p.m. dance at the fairgrounds. Prizes will be presented in five categories during awards presentation at 7:30 p.m.
 The MS Society is also looking for volunteer canvassers for its Carnation Campaign on May 8 and 9. Details are available by contacting York-East chapter president Margaret Britton at 640-3400.
 Carnations can be ordered from Joy Thornton at 640-3690 or Jeanie Hardy at 640-6394.
 The MS campaign kicked-off in Stouffville Tuesday with a balloon release from the Town Municipal Office.

Campaign

An estimated 50,000 Canadians have to cope with multiple sclerosis every day of their lives.
 This disease of the central nervous system strikes more young adults than any other neurological ailment.
 It's in the spotlight this month as the York-East chapter and other Multiple Sclerosis branches undertake an annual Carnation Campaign.
 Canadians are especially susceptible to developing MS because of where we live and where we come from, according to a news release. The disease is more common in temperate climates, less common the closer one lives to the equator. It also occurs more often among people of northern European backgrounds, those who make up a large part of Canada's population.
 The MSSociety of Canada funds well over $1 million of medical research each year, targeted at finding a cause, effective treatment and cure.
 The society also supports services to assist Canadians who have multiple sclerosis and offers educational programs about MS for health care professionals and the concerned public.
 Stouffville-area residents can help by donating time and money to the 1987 Carnation Campaign.
