for success*

Culinary cleverness and a little luck paid off for this trio who took top honors in the Economist and Sun's 'My Mom's Favorite Recipe' contest. Stouffville's Sherry Fockler, 10, wins a microwave oven for her mother's Western Meatball recipe after her name was drawn for the grand prize, while Violet Shearer's (background, left) Almond Barley Casserole and Blanche Ciach's Mother Zak's Bortsch won the pair a free house-cleaning by Molly Maid.

Brittany: You got it, ace. Starting on May 2nd for a whole week there's 20% off all our baby furniture. 20% off all accessories like bumper pads and quilts. 20% off all strollers and child seats, gifts, cards and books...

Billy: Have Mom and Aunt Margo flipped their trolley? They've been planning for months to open The Baby Place, and they're starting with a SALE?

Brittany: So's they can introduce everyone to all the great kid stuff they've got at The Baby Place, and they'll keep coming back. Boy, for a twin brother, you sure are slow!

Billy: Well, it was my idea to have a FREE DRAW on May 9th for a Kidcraft Crib or a Silvercrest Stroller.

Brittany: And don't forget the PICTURE CLUB - $50 worth of merchandise each month awarded to the winning baby picture.

Billy: I still think we should be able to enter.

Brittany: Huh! You'd always come second!

Billy: Britt, there's so much going on... discounts on clothing up to 6X, "BEAR BUCKS" discount coupons good on your next purchase... hey, how come our Mom knows so much about what's great for kids?

Brittany: Listen, when you have twins, you learn in a hurry!
