

Markham's Long lives up to name

Claudine Long lived up to her last name by pulling in two firsts at a recent North York long-course meet for the Town of Markham Aquatic Club (MAC).

Besides earning a sixth, Long won the 100-metre backstroke and 50-m. butterfly in the girls 10 & 11 age group.

In the same category, Debbie Wright collected two fifths, two sixths, a seventh and an eighth.

Andrea Pivetta claimed a fifth, while Samantha Boyle had fourth eighths. Samantha Emer picked up a fifth, sixth and eighth.

Leading the way for MAC in the 10-and-younger boys was Greg Hall, winning the 100-m. freestyle, swimming to second in the 200-m. individual medley and earning a fourth and sixth.

Adam Porteous finished on top in the 200-m. freestyle, then claimed a fourth, eighth, and third in the 200-m. backstroke.

Tania Rusnov had a seventh in girls 15-and-older competition. For the 11-12 boys it was David Fogel with a sixth, Tim Mackwood with a seventh and Mark Juhasz with a fifth.

Smith leads the way for Unionville

Matthew Smith's first led a 21-member contingent of Unionville Skating Club members at a recent Scarborough competition.

Smith won the Senior Bronze men's division. Peter Boutakis was first in his Preliminary men's flight and second in the finals.

Carole Anne MacKinnon was third in her Open ladies flight, and third in the finals. Christine Boutakis won her Senior Bronze ladies flight.

At the Junior Bronze ladies level, Liane Seal led the way with a second in her flight and first in the final. Seal was also third in the Senior Bronze final at a Sudbury meet.

Other seconds in Scarborough Junior Bronze flights came from Laura Summefeldt, Jennifer Ritter, Heather Cooper and Chantal Fry. Heather Musgrave was third.

Wendy Bellmore, Elizabeth Moore and Jaime McDowell were all third in her Preliminary ladies flights.

Also in the competition were Tarja Italuoma, Christine Ritter, Michelle Smith, Julie Clevely, Kerry & Tracy Chang, Wendy Cooper and Jennifer Summefeldt.
