

Gormley pastor Farewell service

By EVELYN MILSTED
GORMLEY — Rev. Ed Sparks is leaving the Gormley Missionary Church where he's been the congregation's highly respected pastor seven years. Rev. Sparks is also the pastor to residents of Parkview Home in Stouffville. He will preside over his farewell services this Sunday. A ladies' trio from Port Perry Baptist Church will provide the special music. Sympathy of the community is extended to J. Henry Heise in the passing of his wife, Martha, on Saturday at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. Mrs. Heise was 94. Surviving, besides her husband, is one son Lorne of McGregor; one daughter Verna (Mrs. Lewis Heise) of Sundridge; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. The funeral service was held Monday from Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church with interment Heise Hill Cemetery.

ly Ann, May 20 at Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. The funeral service was held Saturday from the Stouffville Pentecostal Church with interment, St. Mary's Cemetery, Hesson, Ont. Kelly's sister, Jackie, still resides in Gormley.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Bennett and children of South Bend, Indiana, enjoyed the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Bennett and Caroline.

Matthew Nigh of Toronto spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise.

Mr. Mel Baker is a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sider of Wainfleet spent the weekend with her sisters, Velma and Jean Brilinger.

Rev. and Mrs. David Thiessen and children of London, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Thiessen.

The choir of Victoria Square United Church is presenting a musical concert entitled "Salute to Broadway", this Sunday, (May 31), at 7:30 p.m.

Sympathy of the community is also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hanley and family, formerly of Gormley, in the passing of a beloved daughter and sister, Kel-

SDSS Student Council choosen for 1987-88

By JEFF CARNEY

 Ah...summertime at Stouffville High.

Warm sunshine caresses our beloved school as students stroll through the halls, enjoying the leisurely atmosphere of learning that enhances the last few weeks.

(Ha! Nice try, Jeff. Who do you think you're kidding? Try telling it like it is so folks will know what REALLY happened).

Well, okay Jim, I'll be honest. This week at S.D.S.S., saw many earth-shattering events.

On a personal note, columnist Duff Wallis and I both recovered from amnesia in time for the big CFNY Road Show, (an event no one will want to forget).

The gymnasium was packed, Thursday night, as hundreds of students 'got down' to their favorite songs, accompanied by a larger-than-life video screen and a light show that would impress any electricity student! Complete with free ticket give-aways and home-made videos, the evening was FANTASTIC!

But while most of the school was dancing the night away, the Yearbook staff, under the capable leadership of Chris Snooks, was busy sorting through hundreds of copies in preparation for Friday's delivery.

On Friday, students crammed into 'RM 102' to catch a glimpse of this year's production. And what a book it is! Anyone even remotely interested in Stouffville High and its various activities, should see a copy. The Yearbook staff really outdid themselves. The finished product is fantastic. Congratulations Chris and Company! Finally, if your heart can take it, there was yet another cliff-hanger at S.D.S.S. this week — Student Council Elections!

Amid the turmoil of campaign slogans and promises, S.D.S.S. elects its Student Council Executive for the 1987-88 school year. Positions have been filled by the following:

The treasurer is Stephanie Barclay; secretary, Shona McWilliams; social convener, Lori Woolford and head honcho, (or President, as he's commonly known), is Paul Sinclair. Paul will be ably supported by vice-presidents Karsten Henze and Christine Dube. My congratulations!
