

Summer student

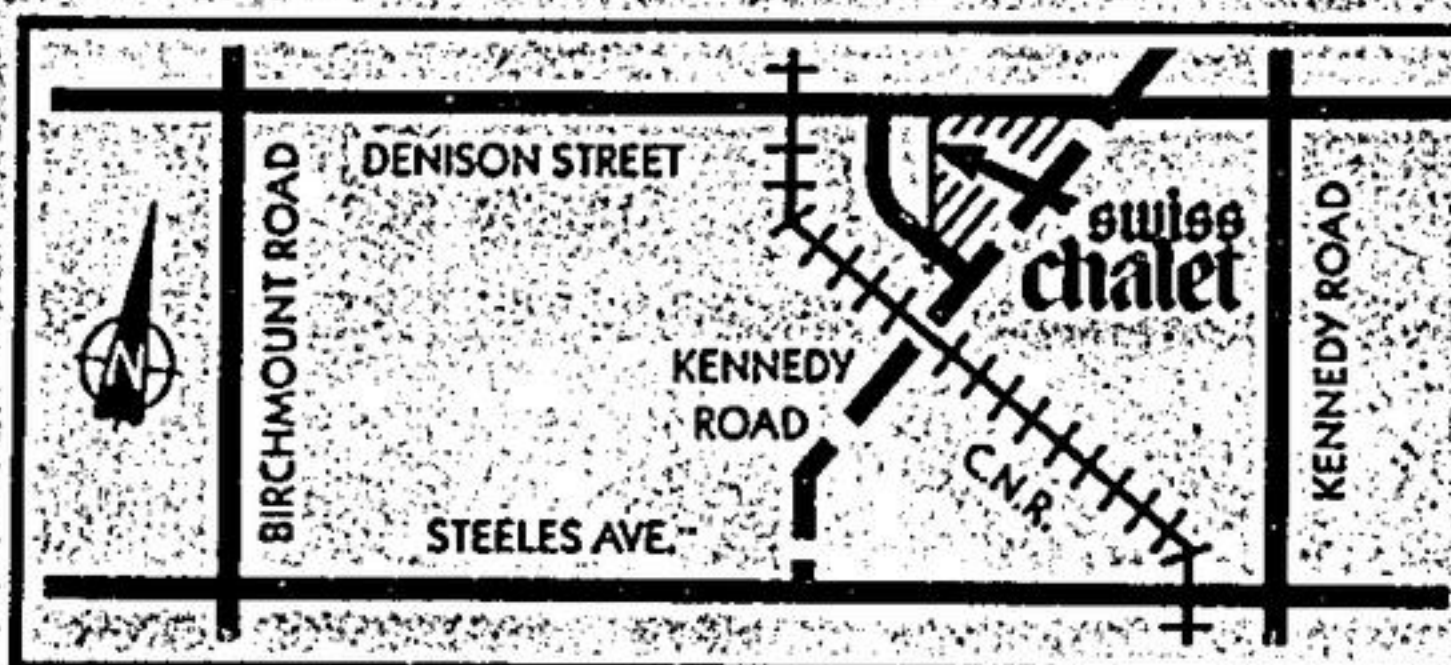

Chris Garbutt of Manitoba St. in Stouffville has joined The Tribune's editorial staff as a summer student. The 19-year-old is entering his second year in the journalism program at Carleton University in Ottawa. During his three-month stint here, the Stouffville District Secondary School graduate will cover a variety of stories for the regular Wednesday edition as well as the paper's Community Focus section and Saturday Weekender. Chris previously wrote The Tribune's high school news column for two years.

GRAND OPENING

There's a new Swiss Chalet in your neighbourhood

Visit our newest Swiss Chalet restaurant. Just one mouthful of our tasty charcoal broiled chicken and you'll know why so many people say, "Swiss Chalet! Okay!" We use real hardwood charcoal, so the chicken cooks naturally in its own juices. Our french fries are cut fresh everyday, or you can have one of our delicious baked potatoes. Tangy sauce and a fresh, toasted roll complete your meal. So drop in and get acquainted with your neighbourhood Swiss Chalet. We're confident we'll be old friends the first time you visit.

Offer valid only at
