Appreciation

Forty-five Home Support Services volunteers and home-makers were honored for outstanding community involvement at an annual appreciation dinner May 25.

Whitchurch-Stouffville Home Support Services, a government pilot project, began in 1980 serving 62 people. This year, 201 were registered.

"Most seniors prefer to remain in their own homes," said coordinator Jean Anderson, "however, because of health problems, some require assistance with heavy work around the house. Our home-makers are people with a special interest in seniors. They go into the home to help with important household tasks such as meal preparation, vacuuming, laundry and washing floors."

Honored during the dinner for outstanding service in this capacity were — Alene Hoover, Della Letkeman, Shirley Rehill, Gerda Felschow, Fran Thorne, Carole White, Pat Pyke, Hazel Snaith, Rosanne Felschow, Mildred Ramer, Marjorie Heise, Ali Nauta, Helga Jordan, Joanne Nighswander and Anne Haining.

Home Support Services also relies on volunteer contributions including transportation, errands, yard work, friendly visiting and caregiver relief.

Late Walter Todd
A family tradition

Walter Todd, last surviving member of the family of George and Elizabeth Todd, died suddenly, May 28, as the result of a heart attack. Mr. Todd was cutting grass at his new home in Uxbridge at the time. He was 73.

Born at Goodwood, Walter continued to reside there until two years ago when he and wife Florence moved to Uxbridge. They wished to be closer to their son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Gloria, and granddaughters, Connie and Karen.

Walt and Florence had been looking forward to celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary next February.

Until 1967, Walter had been a partner with his father and brother Gordon, in Todds' Produce, growing and shipping vegetables of all kinds in the early years and finally specializing in potatoes.

He had many entertaining stories to tell about the trucking business in Ontario during its pioneer years.

When the family business closed, Walter went to work at the Ontario Hospital in Whitby and remained there until his retirement. However, he was not content to remain idle. He became very adept at wood-working.

Walter was active in the community. As a young man, he played hockey, lacrosse and baseball with Goodwood teams during the 1930's and 40's. He served as master of both the Goodwood Orange Lodge and Stouffville's Richardson Masonic Lodge. He was a member of the old Uxbridge Township Public School Area Board before the advent of regionalization. He had a lifelong interest in politics, working diligently to elect many Conservative MP's and MPP's in Ontario County ridings over the years.

Service was held May 30 from Low's Funeral Home, Uxbridge, with interment Uxbridge Cemetery. The chapel was filled to overflowing.

Besides his wife, the former Florence Snowball, he is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Gloria; and granddaughters Connie and Karen. He was predeceased by brothers Jack and Gordon and sisters Blanche and Lorraine.

The proof is in the taste

Shawna Kelterborn, 11, (left), of Alderwood Crescent and Allison MacDonald, 9, of Hemlock Drive, Stouffville, picked a perfect afternoon, Saturday, to set up their lemonade stand. Before making a sale, the girls decided to sample their own product. They gave it the stamp of approval and so did their cameraman customer. —Jim Thomas
