Many Thomson Court residents spend much time as volunteers at various activities in Markham.

We are proud of the following group which has helped out many days at the Markham-Stouffville Hospital office on Main Street—counting and rolling up coins collected from counter receptacles in various stores also stuffing and stamping envelopes.

Amanda Bryson, Iris Fulford, Nancy Miller, Eloise Haines, Jean Shuttleworth and Ethel Staight were the recipients of a recognition award for their contribution towards the development of the hospital at the annual meeting of the hospital Thursday.

Ruth Hutchings and helpers Verna Jones and Erna Jahns spend many hours each week at the Markham Clothing Centre where wearing apparel, furniture, etc. is available to the needy who have been recommended and referred there and to others who pay a trivial cost.

Each year different residents are requested to accept donations (from the tenants) for the Heart Fund, the Kidney Foundation and the Cancer Society. Receipts are available.

Everyone is so willing and generous to these worthy causes.

For a change of pace our herb today is Parsley one of the earliest form of garden herb used by the Romans to sweeten their breath during feasts.
