

Bantam boys gain tie

By BRUCE ETHERIDGE

It took a last-minute rally for the White Rose Nurseries Bantam boys to salvage the season opener in Unionville/Milliken representative Soccer action.

The team fell behind 4-1 in the first half but came back to earn a 7-7 tie in the game's final minutes. Coach Henry Lopez said the team "made a lot of mistakes" the first half but "showed a lot of heart" in coming back to earn a tie.

Goal scorers were Allan Millar (3), Errol Gracey (2), Hishan Derhouagiemian and Trevor Hill.

A charging penalty against Aurora's goalie in the dying minutes of the game helped preserve a 3-2 victory for the Franca's Pizzeria Rangers.

The Rangers took a 2-0 lead at half time on goals by Christopher Keay and Ryan Wheeler. Aurora closed the gap to one goal, but Stephan Williams gave Unionville a two-goal bulge again.

The penalty against Adrian Powell sealed Aurora's fate in what had been a well-balanced game.

played by the nine-and-younger boys.

Four quick goals set the stage for the Unionville and District Veterans Association Atoms.

Despite the season opener being delayed half-an-hour, the team didn't let the rain dampen spirits.

The boys came out with a barrage of early first-half goals by Robert Telalidis (2), Eric Morris and Jonathon Dunlap to take a 4-0 lead.

Good passing led to three more second-half tallies. Strikers were Sean Spencer, Gregory Morris and Sean Vickers. The opposition netted pair of goals to make the final score 7-2.

The boys followed that up with a 3-1 triumph over Thornhill.

Telalidis notched his third goal in two games to give Unionville a 1-0 lead in the first half. Spencer added another before Thornhill replied to close the gap to one.

Play went up and down the field, but about mid-point in the half, winger Alexander Christopoulos sent a beautiful cross kick right to Dino Raponi who knocked it in.

Pewees boys lose

Markham's Rep Sports baseball Peewees had their season opener spoiled by a tough Richmond Hill squad, as they lost a one-sided 7-0 decision.

Richmond Hill pounded Markham for five second-inning runs, and added two more in the fourth inning to demoralize the locals.

Markham's bright spot was southpaw hurler Paul Tatem, who pitched shutout relief ball while striking out eight of the 11 batters he faced.

The squad rebounded the following week by defeating Bolton 6-1, thanks in part to Tatem and Kyle Moore teaming up to allow only two hits.

Markham had only four hits, but strong base-running allowed Kevin Carrington to score twice. Also coming home were Robert Crawford, Shawn McLeish, Jason D'Elia and David Samborsky.

Two hole-in-ones!

The ladies of the Unionville Curling Club turned in their brooms to take a swipe at golf recently.

Two competitors managed to pocket a hole-in-one. Grace Carrigan did it on the second hole and Bea Featherstone matched the feat on the 15th green.

A putter donated by Unionville Fairways — host of the event — was up for grabs in the tourney. The winner was Naomi Rutherford with a score of 61. She nipped runner-up Audrey Boyce by a single stroke.

They were followed by Marg Sayeau with a score of 62, Nancy Davis, 63, and Virginia Szyska who shot a 66.
