

Citizen of '87 is honored

Lorne Boadway, (right), is Whitchurch-Stouffville's 1987 'Citizen of the Year'. Mr. Boadway was accorded a standing ovation at a ceremony, Thursday held at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. He was honored by several community organizations as well as the event's sponsor, The Stouffville Tribune. Here Publisher Bruce Annan, (left), presents the official Citizen's Plaque to Mr. Boadway.

Festival support excellent

Dear Jim:
On behalf of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Strawberry Festival Committee, I wish to thank The Tribune for its continued support through the years.
I also wish to thank the businesses who supported the Parade, the Pageant and all other Festival events. Without his kind of co-operation, the Festival could not continue.
For Canada Day fireworks, appreciation is extended to — The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville; Cable Tech and the Secretary of State.
For Musical Events, thanks goes to — Wilson Water Wells; Andre Kozak; Ralph Spademan; Kimura and Goodbrand; Button Armstrong and Ness; Canada Post & Beam; A&S Construction; Canadian Tire and Anderson Haulage.
For free swimming and prizes, appreciation is extended to — Rennie Transport; Stouffville Kinsmen; B.E. Larkin Equipment; Betz Pools and the Stouffville Co-op.
I hope those restaurants who supported the Festival through the serving of strawberry treats and providing meals as prizes will, in turn, make new friends and gain additional patronage.
Sincerely,
Jim Kidd,
Festival Committee
