

Celebrates 90th birthday

A family reunion was enjoyed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Whittamore, Cedar Grove. The gathering was in honor of Mrs. Lillis Paisley of Stouffville on the occasion of her 90th birthday. Mrs. Paisley is the mother of four sons, Bert, Gene and Earl of Stouffville; Bruce of Mt. Albert; three daughters, Erma Sneddon, Stouffville; Erlene Cummings of Scarborough; Helen Clark of Unionville; 24 grandchildren; 35 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Here Mrs. Paisley holds a plaque received from the mayor and council, Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Ag. Rep. retires

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH-LINE — An interesting social time, was enjoyed by some of the remaining farmers in the area, Wednesday evening, at the Sunderland Arena. More than 450 from the Region of Durham gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bell. Mr. Bell has been our highly respected Agricultural Representative for many years. As a retirement gift, Mr. and Mrs. Bell were presented with a patio set.

The congregation of Goodwood Baptist Church welcomed their pastor and his wife, Gary and Dawnna Manzo home from their honeymoon Sunday. The newlyweds travelled to the south-eastern United States. On arriving back in Detroit, they were honored at a family reception. Dawnna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Maye motored to Detroit to attend.

A farewell party was held at the Ken Hockley home, Friday, as friends of Jayne Stitzel showed their appreciation of her work and friendship prior to her return to Detroit. Jayne was a staff member at Emmanuel International, R.R. 4, Stouffville. In addition, she served as a faithful Bible Class teacher at Goodwood Baptist Church. Jayne was presented with a souvenir of Goodwood; two plates and a coffee spoon.

We're sorry to report that Mrs. Ronald James is a patient in Scarborough Centenary Hospital. She suffered a broken hip in a fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hockley have purchased a home and business near Kinmount. They will operate the Union Creek Fish and Chip Restaurant near there. They plan to move early this month. Mr. and Mrs. Hockley have resided in the community 27 years. Residents wish them the very best in their new venture.

Husband-wife honors' grads

By EVELYN MILSTED GORMLEY — Congratulations to Brad and Brenda Hogg on their recent graduation from Queen's University, Kingston. Brad received his Bachelor of Arts degree and a Combined Physical and Health Education degree, (both with distinction). In addition, he received a medal in Physical and Health Education for Outstanding Academic Achievement. Brenda received her Bachelor of Arts degree and a Combined Physical and Health Education degree, (with distinction). Brenda plans to enter the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto this fall.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Rev. and Mrs. Ed Sparks in the passing of his only sister, Eva Sparks on Wednesday, June 24. Eva had lived with her brother and sister-in-law for the past three months due to a serious illness. The funeral service was held Saturday in St. Catherines where she had resided previously.

A large number of people attended an 'Open House', Sunday afternoon at Parkview Village, Stouffville, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Craig Hogg and son Ryan. Dr. and Mrs. Hogg and family are moving to Elliot Lake this Saturday where Craig is joining the staff of the medical clinic there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Heise and family of Ridgeway spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise.

Congratulations to high school graduates, Lori Lei Bennett, from Grade 13 at Bayview Secondary School; Velvet Wideman, from Grade 13, and Dale Wright from Grade 12 at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.

Rev. Arthur Byer will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service, July 5 at Heise Hill Church. Rev. David Moran, assistant pastor at the Stouffville Pentecostal Church, will bring the message at the 7 p.m. worship.

The Adult Sunday School class will not convene during the summer months at the Missionary Church. The Children's Sunday School will meet at 11 a.m., during the worship hour.

Congratulations to Rev. Marlin Ressler, recently appointed chairman of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Ministerial Association.

Principal honored

By ELSIE BOLAND GOODWOOD — Mr. Morrison, former principal of Goodwood Public School and more recently the principal at Uxbridge, was honored at a retirement party in the Goodwood Hall, Thursday night. All members of his family were in attendance.

Ken Minaker and Andrea Lawrenson were married June 27 in a lovely Pentecostal Church ceremony, Weston Road, Toronto. Participating pastors were Rev. Howard Minaker and Rev. Wilf Lawrenson. The reception was held at The Lighthouse.

Euchre winners June 24 were — Elva Kydd, Doreen Duck, Velma Ross, Eva Evans, Aldeen Evans and Stan Beach.

Mrs. Elsie Boland was the jackpot winner at last week's bingo. The Seniors are planning a trip to Gananogue July 27.

Message from the Queen

Mr. and Mrs. George Francis, Somerville Street, Stouffville, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with an 'Open House' Saturday at the Silver Jubilee Club. Mr. and Mrs. Francis are the parents of six sons — Charles of Winnipeg; George of Scarborough; Walter of Abbotsford, B.C.; Jim of Burleigh Falls; David of Stouffville; Don of Airdrie, Alberta and three daughters, Marjorie Jackson of Whitelaw, Alberta; Eva Brown of Scarborough and Doreen Robison of Mississauga.
