Cancer workers receive 20-year awards

A group of Claremont volunteers were recently honored for their long service with the north Pickering branch of the Canadian Cancer Society.

Rosemary Timms, Maureen Ward, Kay Parker, Molly Newman and Erla Manderson received 20-year service awards during a June 22 cancer society meeting at the home of Liz Lounsbury.

Claremont Public Library celebrates summer every Wednesday at 1 p.m., beginning July 8 and carrying through to Aug. 26. A full program for children aged 3 to 8 includes stories, games and crafts.

Claremont United Church welcomes its new minister, Rev. Louise Barrie, this Sunday (June 4) with a 11:15 a.m. summer service. This will be the first of four combined services held in conjunction with the congregation of Claremont Baptist Church. The location will switch to the Baptist Church pulpit for four August services with Rev. Cam Watts.

Karen Marks hosts an open house on Tuesday, July 7, providing community members with an opportunity to meet and welcome Rev. Barrie. It runs from 2 to 4 p.m. For more details contact 649-3030.

Anyone still wishing to join the Claremont Tennis Club can contact Shelagh Mulveney at 649-3102. Lessons are available on the courts in the community park.

The area of Dow St. and Durham Region Rd. 5 has been transformed into a busy work site in recent days as a crew installs underground lines for Bell Canada.
