

Mom, Mary DiCarlo holds daughter Angela, 3, and Paola, 2, up to the drinking fountain. Thousands of families packed picnics and made a day of the Canada Day celebrations.

'Til next year!

Distribution department's Sandy Kately made a dandy clown, but she couldn't keep the kids supplied with enough helium balloons.

Peter Barudzija feels the blood surge in his veins as his native Yugoslavian music fills the air. Folk music from various nations was the order of the day.

Donna Saxon, also from distribution gets a birds-eye-view of the estimated 15,000 people at the birthday bash.

Call it puppy love if you wish, but these canine carousers are bent on meeting same time, same place next year.

Photos by Sjoerd Witteveen