4-H members take display to Oshawa

Two Uxbridge-area 4-Hers took part in an Agricultural Awareness display during the City of Oshawa's Canada Day celebrations. Deborah Fintelman and Leanne Johnson helped organize the display, Hands On Agriculture, which featured farm animals, toys depicting modern farm implements, and locally grown fruit and vegetables.

The exhibit, which attracted large crowds to Oshawa's Lakeview Park on July 1, also involved Kelly O'Connor of R.R. 1, Pickering; Whitby's Susan Hill; Ken Lamb, R.R. 4, Port Perry; Amy Penny of R.R. 3, Little Britain; Pat Shier, R.R. 1, Cannington; Steve Taylor, R.R. 3, Port Perry; Wendy Warren, R.R. 1, Brechin; and Lynn M. Bailey of Oshawa. Assistance was provided by club leaders Keith Kennedy of Cannington, Eldon Werry of R.R. 5, Oshawa, and Tim O'Connor, R.R. 1, Pickering.

This group of 4-H members will also travel to Mountainview, Alta., this summer in an exchange program with 10 Alberta 4-Hers. The trip is organized by the Canadian 4-H Council, which receives special funding from the Department of Secretary of State.
