Self-taught artist puts detail and life in work

GALLERY BROUGHAM

The work of young nature artist Marc Barrie is shown to advantage in the century old school house located in Brougham.

Marc Barrie is a self-taught artist who closely observes and studies nature and hence brings a liveliness of color and attention to detail in his paintings.

A number of original paintings and a large selection of limited edition prints are on display in the gallery. His drawings, paintings and limited edition prints are collected worldwide.

Gallery Brougham is located nine miles east of Markham on Hwy 7 in the village of Brougham. Hours are Wednesday to Sunday from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. and on Friday from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. Call 683-7010 for information.

MENGER GALLERY

Located in the old Post Office building in Gormley is the Menger Gallery.

Owned and managed by Pie Menger, this gallery is devoted to the exhibition of paintings by the talented Keirstead family — Mitch, Pie, Colebrook, James and Annela Keirstead.

Original oils and watercolors in landscapes and floral representations are displayed on the main floor. In the newly enlarged area upstairs reproductions are available.

Menger Gallery is located on the Stouffville Rd. between Hwy 404 and Woodbine Ave.

The hours are Tuesday to Friday from 1-9 p.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Sunday from 1-5 p.m. Closed Mondays. Please note: gallery will be closed Aug. 1-14; reopening Saturday, Aug. 15. For information call 887-5795.

LATCHAM GALLERY

The abstract works of Wilhelmina Kennedy will be presented at the show opening Thursday, July 9 at this public gallery in Stouffville.

A native of the Netherlands, Ms. Kennedy attended the Ontario College of Art after settling in Canada. Inspired by the great cathedrals of Europe, her paintings display a religious influence and her own complex inner struggles.
