

Food drive started by Jr. farmers

Durham West County Junior Farmers are doing their part to assist needy families in the area as part of a province-wide food drive.

The 110-strong Durham West group, which comprises clubs from Uxbridge, Brooklin and Beaverton, launched its campaign last week with a can drive held at Uxbridge's Ministry of Agriculture and Food office.

Goods contributed by club members during that meeting have been donated to Brock Township's food bank.

"It was basically up to the County to decide how it would go about raising food," Durham West provincial director Suzi Hilts explained of the province-wide program. "We're hoping to pull it all together for Agri-Food Week in October (Oct. 5-10)."

She added that club members have also planted an extra row of vegetables in the gardens to further aid the cause. A gathering of garden produce is slated for September.
