

Continent-wide competition

Markham musicians take top trophies

Students attending Markham's Music Stand participated in the American Guild of Music National Competition last weekend at the Skyline Hotel, with several pupils receiving high marks for their effort. This competition is open to students in North America. This event is held in a different city annually, with this year's competition being held in Toronto.

Among the top winners in the competition was four-year-old, Markham resident, Marco Bucci. Marco won a first place trophy in Age Achievement, a third place trophy in Length of Study, AA trophy in evaluation and received 96 per cent in the North American Age Championships. He has been studying music for 11 months, under the direction of Sherri Cox.

Daniel Mott, age 6, was another top contestant, winning a first place trophy and a cheque for $41 in the North American Age Championships, a second place trophy in Length of Study, 95 per cent in Achievement and AAA trophy in Evaluation. Daniel has been studying for nine months with Judith Bell of the Music Stand.

Results of the organ categories are as follows: Jessica Bell, age 11, received a third place trophy in Length of Study, AAA trophy in Evaluation and an 88 per cent in Age Achievement. Janet Mott, age 10, won a third place trophy in Test List, AAA trophy in Evaluation and scored 95 per cent in Age Achievement.

Stephanie Allan, age 15, received AAA trophy in Evaluation, 89 per cent in Length of Study and 87 per cent in Age Achievement. Wendy Candolini, age 13, received AAA trophy in Evaluation, 82 per cent in Age Achievement, 87 per cent in Length of Study, 100 per cent on levels two and three of theory, 87 per cent on level five and 90 per cent in level seven theory.

The piano results were as follows: Jennifer Dempsey, age 8, received AA trophy in Evaluation, 96 1/2 per cent in Length of Study, 96 1/2 per cent in North American Age Championships and 95 per cent in Age Achievement. Joanna Parina, age 5, received 97 per cent in the North American Age Champsionships, while her sister, Jes-salyn Parina, age 9, received 96 1/2 per cent in the North American Age Championships. Jeffery Bell, age 8, received AAA trophy in Evaluation, 95 per cent in Age Achievement, 95 1/2 per cent in North American Age Championships and 96 per cent in Length of Study. Simon Taylor, age 12, received AA trophy in Evaluation, a plaque for level 10 theory, 99 per cent in level seven theory and 100 per cent in levels two and three theory and 93 per cent in Length of Study.

Jonathan Mott, age 10, received a third place trophy in Age Achievement, a second place trophy in Length of Study, 96 per cent in the North American Age Championships, and AA trophy in Evaluation. Charles Mott received 91 per cent in test list, 80 per cent in Age Achievement and a AA trophy in Evaluation. Ann Spalvieri received a first place trophy in Length of Study and A trophy in Evaluation.
