VICTORIA SQUARE — Many dream of seeing their names flashed across the silver screen. April Hutchings of Victoria Square hopes her dream will come true.

While Dramatic Arts is a favorite subject at Bayview Secondary School, her hopes extend beyond the actress roll. She'd like to be a producer.

April's our "Girl Next Door". Born in Toronto, April moved with her parents, Brian and Pat Hutchings, and brother Brian to Victoria Square 12 years ago. She's a Grade 12 student at B.S.S.

Following graduation, April hopes to enroll at the University of California. If a career in filmmaking doesn't plan out, a position related to radio or television is equally acceptable.

April speaks highly of her school with its many cultures. She plays the flute in the Sr. Band.

April has a talent for photography. Many beautiful photos are samples of her skill. She uses a Canon AV-1.

April claims her mother has greatly influenced her life. "We're best friends," she says.

This summer April's employed in the head office of Magna International.

Fourth Line News

Husband-wife in hospital

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — A speedy recovery is wished for George and Greta Alsop of Minden and formerly of Goodwood. Mr. Alsop is a patient in hospital at Peterborough. Mrs. Alsop is a patient in Toronto Western Hospital. George served as a livestock drover in this area for many years. Both he and Greta were greatly missed when they moved from the community. Their many friends wish them a speedy return to health.

Debbie Fintleman and Leanne Johnson are participating in a 4-H exchange. They will travel by plane to Alberta, Aug. 1 and will spend a week on separate farms in that province. Later, in the month, their hosts will return for a week here.

Joe and Maureen Mayr have returned from a visit with former Goodwood residents, Ron and Marg Lodge at Sioux Lookout. Unfortunately, their holiday was marred by a motor accident at Thunder Bay.

Linda Mayr and friend spent last week at a relative's lake-side home in Quebec.

Goodwood Srs. enjoyed a bus trip to the Thousand Islands. I had intended to accompany the group but suffered a badly bruised knee and a gash requiring three stitches. At present, I'm a semi-invalid. I was wondering where the roses were among the thorns. I found them in the form of family and friends that quickly came to my aid.

The Third Annual Festival of Roses at White Rose Nurseries last weekend was expected to attract up to 20,000 people. The property boasts more than 200,000 blooms.

Service was held July 20 from the Low & Low Funeral Home, Uxbridge for Mrs. Gordon Flewell, the former Minnie Stewart who passed away following a brief illness. Mrs. Flewell was the youngest member in the Bert Stewart family of Goodwood. The Stewart family were long-time Fourth Line farmers. Sympathy of the community is extended to daughter and son-in-law Carol and Howard Wills and family. Interment was made at Uxbridge Cemetery.

I had the pleasure of calling on Myrtle Watson recently at Trinity Manor, just in time for the Sunday evening hymn-sing. Myrtle was capably presiding at the piano. I felt privileged to share in the service. The hymn books used are gifts from Mr. Edgar Latcham, formerly of Goodwood. Myrtle marked her 94th birthday July 28. She remains keenly interested in local happenings and was enquiring concerning former friends and neighbors. The community extends congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bunker of Kushog Lake, spent a day last week with Diane and Don Bunker, and Merlin and Lorraine Harman in Goodwood. Granddaughter Jill returned with them for a holiday.

Wilma and Tony Mezenberg recently enjoyed a visit from Wilma's sister and brother-in-law, Jo and Hendrik Van De Laar of Holland. While here, the couple celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with dinner at Cullen Gardens, Whitby.
