

House or mansion?

This is the house that last spring created all the controversy on Geoffrey Crescent, Stouffville. It was built on a vacant lot between two model homes. Its size is obvious when compared to the house on the right. Geoffrey Crescent extends north off Hemlock Drive.

Plan summer flower show

STOUFFVILLE — The flower gardens are beautiful this summer.

The executive of the Stouffville Horticultural Society hope this abundance of bloom will be reflected in the number of entries at the annual Flower Show Aug. 20, (evening), and Aug. 21, (afternoon and evening), in the lower auditorium of Stouffville United Church.

There are many categories including a class for juniors.

For additional information call Society President Mrs. Lillian Carr, Ninth Line South, (640-5430) or Society Secretary Mrs. Jean Barkey, Rose Avenue, (640-2047).
