

Runs galore in Stouffville minor softball action

The following are the results of games played in the Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Softball Association for the week ending July 20:

T-BALL NOVICE

A pair of home runs by both Carmen Auciello and David Walker led the Ballantrae Lions to a 30-20 win over Hathaway's Interior Design. Patricia Van Veen and Mark Meyer also hit taters for the winners. Blair Cain, Eric Harper, Jamie Redshaw, Ryan White and Douglas Richardson had homers for Hathaway's.

Stouffville Pizzeria edged MacLean's Furniture 25-23. Daniel Gothe and Daniel Haines hit home runs for the winners, while Danny Boudway was a stand out on defence. For MacLean's, homers went to Greg Konga and Greg Pritlove. Also, Pritlove made a number of solid defensive plays.

Stouffville Recycling downed Goodwood Gardens 27-23. It was a solid team effort by the winners with homers going to Jamie Alston and Jason Cumbers, while Tegan Bennett, Jesse Wood and Mathew Eagen laced triples. Alston, Bennett, Eagen and Mike Holden all played well defensively. Ken Fierheller, with two, along with Justin Blow and Scott Thomson had homers for Goodwood, while Jhenniffe Delsol had a good game in the field.

T-BALL ADVANCED

Scott Ferris and Jason Shuldice, both with a pair of homers, led Stouffville Lions over Clark's Critters 38-32. Andrew Goode and Tristan Hutchinson also had dingers for the winners, while Michael Wood made a nice catch of a flyball. For Clark's, Mathew Bare, David Clark, Jennifer Girard and Christopher Hoher hit homers.

John Doner Ltd. knocked off Gallo Real Estate 26-14. Darren

Hackwood, with two, Aaron Collins and Geoffrey Goldman hit home runs for the winners. Gallo only had eight players and put in a good effort. Christopher Hurst had two homers, and Stephen Menar nailed a triple, caught a fly and turned a double play for Gallo.

Four home runs by Jeff Hassard made the difference as Rennie Transport nipped the Goodwood Eagles 31-29. Jason Brown, with two, and Chris Heidema also hit homers for Rennie. Jason Parsons nailed a round-tripper for Goodwood, while Josh Martyn and Stephanie Kennedy were stand outs on defence.

A parade of home runs powered John Doner Ltd. to a 39-26 win over Clark's Critters. Justin Norwood and Aaron Collins, each with a pair, along with Adam Hoover, Glenn Doner and Jason Nesbitt all stroked homers for the winners. Clark's only had eight players and put in a good team effort, with a homer going to Christopher Hoher.

Rennie Transport beat Clark's Critters 35-31. Three home runs by Jeffrey Hassard, along with a pair from Jason Brown and a single shot by Chris Heidema powered Rennie to the win. Hassard and Brown also stroked triples. For the Critters, David Clark, Christopher Hoher and Stephanie McLeod hit homers, while three-baggers went to Jamie Clark, David Clark, Mathew Bare, Janine Ewasko and Stephanie McLeod.

The Stouffville Lions defaulted against Giles Chev-Olds, giving Giles a 7-0 win.

A grand slam by Stephen Menar powered Gallo Real Estate to a 32-31 win over Giles Chev-Olds. Andrew Harper was also hot for Gallo as he banged out three home runs. Menar and Harper also played well on defence, combining for a number of double plays. Giles homers went to Michael Masci, two, David Giles and Brad Johnston. Brett Boyd played well on defence for Giles.

MITE GIRLS

Claremont Petro-Canada downed Microfilm/Equipment Services 20-12. Pam Taylor, with three, Laura Winterstein, with two, and Yolanda Ridley hit home runs for the winners. Jennifer McLeod hit a homer for Microfilm.

The Claremont squad then went on to beat Town Living Realty 19-14 on the strength of homers by Pam Taylor, two, Laura Winterstein and Michelle Norton. Leanne Lehman and Yolanda Ridley played strong games on defence for the winners. Katie White was the star for Town Living as she hit a double and made a number of nice defensive plays.

Great pitching by Meighan Van Nostrano and Sheir Bearden led Farquharson Realty to a 15-6 win over Stouffville Florist. Elyse Johnson hit a home run for the winners. Jaime Wagg put in a strong pitching performance for Stouffville.

SQUIRT GIRLS
