

Bantams stay on top

A neck-and-neck battle with Pickering has resulted in Unionville's Peter L. Mason Major Bantam girls bouncing in and out of top spot in the Scarborough Softball League.

After losing first place with a 4-3 extra-inning loss to an inspired opposition, the locals returned the favour and regained top spot with a 7-3 thumping of Pickering in the rematch.

Meanwhile, the Minor Bantam squad was walking all over Newmarket to the tune of 19-3.

In the first of the back-to-back

Pickering battles, both teams waited until the 4th inning before opening the scoring.

That's when Unionville scored twice when Renee Virc crossed the plate, after being hit by a Pickering pitch.

Tara Gordon hit a towering triple to deep left and scored on a fielding miscue. Pickering knotted the count with two runs of its own in the bottom of the frame.

It stayed that way until the locals appeared to pull a win out by scoring a run in the first extra-inning

Annie Wagenhoffer led off with a drive to centre and was brought home on Gordon's 2nd RBI of the game. However, the euphoria was shortlived as Pickering scored its in their half of the inning and gain the win.

Back on home turf it was a different story. Unionville collected two first-inning scores, as a Colleen Thorburn hit was converted to a run when Pickering tried to pick Virc (who had walked) off first base. Gordon came up with her third RBI in two games driving in Virc.

It stayed 2-0 until the sixth frame when Pickering earned its second hit off Andrea English. Two errors allowed the opposition to tie the contest 2-2.

That seemed to fire up the Unionville girls, as they came back in their half of the inning to score five times. Rose Will opened with a single and scored.

Pat Zabarelos' walked and was driven home by Thorburn. Wagenhoffer's smash scored Thorburn, then English slammed the ball between left and centre to score both Wagenhoffer and Lori Digulla.

Meanwhile, Newmarket was a no-contest affair for the Minor Bantams. English picked up her second victory of the week, scattering 4 hits and walking only 1 batter.

Offensively, it was a case of the booming bats of Thorburn, Michelle Quesnelle, Joanna Mason and Carolyn Rogers being too much for the visitors.

Thorburn hit four safeties, drove in two runs and scored 4 times. Quesnelle and Mason also came home three times each.

Rogers also scored on each of her 2 drives as the team rounds into shape for the upcoming play-offs. According to coach Joe English, "we seem to be jelling at the right time."

What a fun bunch!
