Home of the Week

Old Markham charm is offered in this restored turn of the century classic home at 29 Wales Ave. in Markham. Allow your senses to capture the beauty of past and present with french doors leading to a formal living room and through pocket doors to elegant dining. Enjoy the convenience of a Beckerman kitchen that contains a Jenn-Aire island grille range and a built-in oven and microwave. The spacious family room with antique mantle and fireplace has a walkout to the deck and 132 feet of trees and privacy. Original black oak and trim and floors can be found throughout, including a loft that leaves room for imaginative redecorative ideas. The asking price for this home is $319,900 and is listed with Family Trust. For more information, contact agent Larry Raymer at 294-1372.
