Bantams edged in soccer tourney

Markham's MacArthur Ford Bantam Girls soccer team didn't lose a game but still lost the championship at a tournament in Troy, Michigan recently.

The championship, chosen by total goals, was won by the host Troy Spirits.

Markham got off to a strong start edging Livonia, Michigan 2-1. Kristi McNeill and Danielle Hermanson scored for Markham.

In Game Two, the Bantams tied Troy 1-1 on Melissa Peroff's goal. Troy went on to win the tournament on total goals.

In Game 3 Markham rolled over Rochester Royals 5-1. Venessa Shibley netted three goals for the winners while Kristi McNeill netted two to round out the Markham scoring.

In a rematch with Livonia, Markham blanked the U.S. squad 2-0 on goals by Venessa Shibley and Sarah Parr. Goalie Sue Mazzoli earned the shutout.

Strong support for the forwards came from Simone Van Gelder and Siobhain Kinahan with excellent defensive work from Shanti Aranha, Jennifer Temple and Elena Christopoulos. Guest player Michelle Geverink helped bolster the team.
