Voters have spoken

Dear Editor:
We are now truly part of the new riding Durham-York. The campaign was very professional on the part of all candidates.

I want to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Ross Stevenson for his efforts over the past years in his former riding of which Whitchurch-Stouffville was not a part.

I also want to thank our former MPP The Honorable Gregory Sorbara, now representing York Centre. We will miss his enthusiasm, sincerity and extreme success in obtaining funding for worthwhile projects in Whitchurch-Stouffville. His excellent staff served us well.

The voters of Ontario have spoken. They have given an overwhelming majority to Premier David Peterson, a man who worked tirelessly for a decade behind the scenes to correct an adverse situation in our town, as did many others.

The team of responsive representatives that have been elected in Ontario, will now have the opportunity to work with our Premier to continue "Leadership That's Working"; working for us!

I am confident Whitchurch-Stouffville will continue to benefit in the future as we have these past two years.

I am indeed grateful that the residents of Whitchurch-Stouffville have a representative for our area that is a player on the Peterson team for the next four years. I look forward to the same cooperation we enjoyed from our former MPP (Greg Sorbara).

Please let our new representative know your concerns. This demonstrates democracy in action.

Sincerely,
Fran Sainsbury
Mayor

Top spud?

With the kind of growing season we've experienced this summer, there should be plenty of big potatoes around this fall.

If you've recently unearthed a giant spud, save it for The Tribune's Big Potato Contest at Markham Fair.

The heaviest spud will win its grower ten dollars; five dollars for second and three dollars for third.

The committee chairman and judge is Frank Hendy, R.R. 1, Claremont. His decision is final.

Contest participants must deliver their entries, (name and address attached), to The Tribune Office no later than 5 p.m. Sept. 29.
