S.D.S.S. welcomes back students with a shine

By JEFF CARNEY

Sunlight streams in between partially closed curtains as the alarm clock rings loudly in my ear.

From somewhere in the house, my mother's pleasant voice calls: "Jeffrey, it's time to get up, you have school today!"

Sitting upright, I frantically search the wall for my calendar, hoping there's been some mistake.

Falling back, I bury my head in the blankets, trying to hide the inevitable fact that summer has slipped away and it's time to return to good old S.D.S.S.

While I and doubtless many other students were totally unprepared for the upcoming school year, Stouffville High was in fine form. Sparkling clean and proudly displaying a number of renovations, it was ready and waiting for the influx of students, both new and old.

The 1987-88 Students' Council was also well prepared. Spirit days and other activities had already been arranged including the ever-popular "Best Tan/Whitest Legs/Reddest Face/Bleached Hair Competition". It was fun for all. No, I wasn't upset at my second place finish in the Reddest Face showdown.

Finally, before I knew it, it was Friday. The week ended as quickly as it had begun. Old friendships were resumed. New friendships were begun. There are many new students at Stouffville High but the flavor, the spirit and the personality remains the same.

After all the homework and the studying, I realize it's good to be back.

Summers are fun, but nothing can quite compare with the good times at S.D.S.S.

Friends shower couple with gifts

LEMONVILLE — Friends of Ken Wells and Julie McConnell gathered at the Lemonville Community Centre Wednesday evening to honor this popular couple with a shower of beautiful gifts. Jean Nauta organized the celebration complete with a wedding skit. Ken and Julie have been honored at several functions recently including the Wells' family picnic and the nurses on the 4th floor of Scarborough Grace Hospital. Also Anne and Karen Bolender tendered a surprise bridal shower in their home. Their wedding date is Sat., Sept. 26 at 7 p.m. in Lemonville United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Gibbins, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Forsyth,

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Allin Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wells were guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dudley of Oshawa. The occasion was the 25th wedding anniversary honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doe of London, Ont.

Kevin Wells and Jan King are competitors this week at the International Plowing Match near Meaford.

Mrs. Hans Hirsch flew to Caracas, Venezuela, Friday on receiving news of her sister Emma's death. The community extends sympathy to members of the Hirsch family.
