CLAREMONT — Congratulations to the Claremont Peewee fastball team; Coach Earl Rowe; Asst. Coach John Vanderligt and Manager Ken Meredith on their undefeated tournament record and their 12-6 victory over Greenbank Sunday. Special recognition is due Bronson Lawrence, whose two hits resulted in three runs.

Cam Watts is beginning a program for teens, (13 to 16), every Saturday evening at 7 p.m., in the Baptist Church starting Sept. 26. This Saturday afternoon, (Sept. 19), a hay-ride is planned. For additional information call 649-2370.

This Sunday is 'Family Day' at Claremont Baptist Church. A get-together is planned at Willow Grove Centre. David Wood, the guest speaker, will talk about drugs and how they affect the family. A children's program is also planned. Please meet at the Baptist Church parking lot at 1:30 p.m.

Sunday School at the Baptist Church begins Sept. 20 at 9:30 a.m., with classes for all ages.

Claremont United Church is starting 'Inter-Generational Services' this Sunday, (Sept. 20) at 11:15 a.m. The program is geared to the whole family. Rev. Louise Barrie and Karen Marks, the Sunday School superintendent have a new program planned whereby the children will be included in part of the worship time and the adults will explore the theme adopted by the Sunday School.

Claremont Public School is holding a 'Meet-The-Teacher Night', Monday, Sept. 21 at 7 p.m. The program will begin with the introduction of new staff members in the gym. The public health nurse will follow with a presentation on 'Family Life'. Principal Gail Elliott will direct the parents to individual classrooms to meet their children's teachers. Refreshments will be served in the library.

Town Librarian Maureen Ward wishes to remind village residents that the library is open again on Saturdays from 3 to 5 p.m., also Wednesdays, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., and Tuesdays and Thursdays, 3:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The Claremont Recycling Depot for newspapers, glass and cans is now situated on Central Street in front of the library.

The Claremont Lioness Club is in the process of updating their yellow pages. Local businesses interested in having their telephone numbers published should call Patti Card at 649-2618.

It's a boy! It was difficult to miss the blue and white balloons and the large sign on Mike and Lynn McConkey's front lawn. Mitchell Neil arrived Sept. 10 at 8:45 p.m. He tipped the scales at 7lbs., 8 oz.

The congregation of Mt. Zion United Church are celebrating their anniversary, Sunday, Sept. 27 with services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served both morning and evening.

Vaccinate your pet

MUSSELMAN'S LAKE — The Ballantrae and District Lions Club will hold their fourth annual rabies clinic Sept. 19 at Cedar Beach Pavilion, Musselman's Lake.

Dr. Gary Gall of the Stouffville Veterinary Clinic will be on hand to vaccinate pets from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Dr. Margaret Hacking from the Ballantrae Animal Hospital will also be available from 1:30 until 4:30 p.m. at her Felcher Boulevard plaza office.
