

A little litter! to pick up

A Ralph Spademan garbage truck lost its load at Wootton Way and Hwy 7 last week and workmen had to rally forth to pick up the mess. The truck was in the eastbound lanes on Hwy 7 at the time of the mishap. — Sjoerd Witteveen

Talk on protection at Sheraton

Rising protectionism and its effect on the high tech industry will be the subject at the York Technology Association's monthly luncheon on Wednesday, September 23.

Dr. Alan Rugman will be the guest speaker on the topic, "Closing Down the Global Trading System." The luncheon is slated for the Sheraton Parkway Hotel at noon. Cost of the luncheon is $20.

Uncle Lorne at Gospel Hall

Children are invited to attend Uncle Lorne's Bible Hour at Unionville Gospel Hall from Sept. 21 to Oct. 2. The program runs each week night for children ages six to 13 from 7 to 8 p.m.

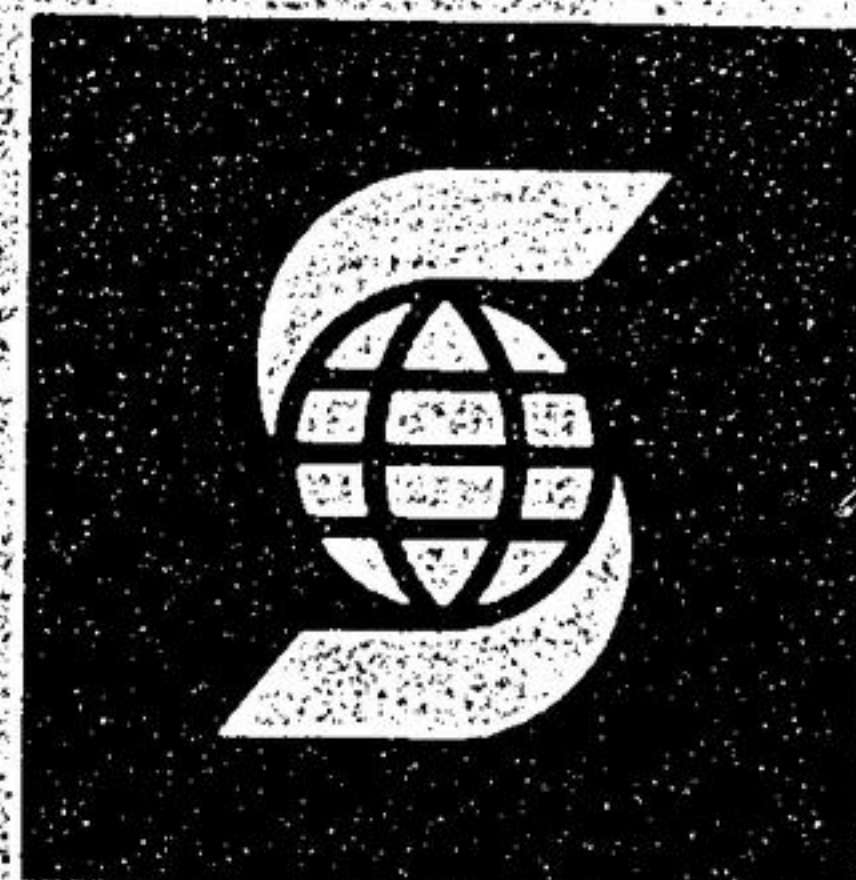

Lorne Langfelt is an evangelist who specializes in children's ministries. The program includes games, songs, Bible stories and prizes. Buses will pick up any child in need of a ride. For more information call 477-3734.

Some jack-o-lantern!

Uxbridge Fair's heaviest pumpkin will likely make Stouffville's biggest jack-o-lantern. The entry, by Glen Jackson of Stouffville, tipped the scales at 199 pounds. Eighteen-year-old Tracy Dilkes, the Queen of Uxbridge Fair, gives the gourd a grin. — Jim Thomas
