

Lucky kids plans teaching

By JIM THOMAS
GOODWOOD — A young girl who has a high level of training will have a chance to become a teacher.

Lorraine Williamson, 17, is the daughter of Wm. and Elizabeth Williamson. Goodwood has three older brothers, Eric and David, both at home, and Bruce in Aurora. She describes her parents as "very supportive" and her brothers as "really great."

Downhill skiing is a favorite sport. She also enjoys basketball and volleyball.

English is a favorite subject.

Lorraine admits she misses participation in the Uxbridge Figure Skating Club, so much so she may return. As a senior, she often helped out in the role of an instructor. "The children made my day," she says.

Lorraine expresses her admiration for ex-Uxbridge skater, Connie Colby, who excited carnival crowds through several seasons.

Everyone looked up to her, she says.

Lorraine will always remember a holiday spent in Tobago, an island off the coast of South America. She vacationed there with her parents.

Memorable also is a job (this past summer) it was there she met boyfriend, Tom Scala, now of Peterborough.

While commuting poses a problem, it also proves a convenience. Goodwood is a handy stop-off point on Tom's way home from work.

Seventeen-year-old Lorraine Williamson, Uxbridge, Goodwood, is a Grade 12 student attending Uxbridge Secondary School. Following graduation, she plans to enroll in Toronto University and Toronto Teachers' College. — Jim Thomas

Several members from the congregation of Goodwood Baptist Church attended the dedication service, Sunday, of the new Baptist Church at Brock Road, Pickering. The sanctuary was filled for the worship. The guest speaker was Rev. Michael Strain. Previous to completion of the new church, the congregation met in a school.

Richard and Margaret Huggins are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Sarah Lyn, born Sept. 24 at Scarborough Centenary Hospital. The lovely little girl weighed in at eight pounds. Sarah Lyn is a second grandchild for Jack and Ella Symes. Howard and Kathie Pike and
