POLKAROO
Appearing at Markham Theatre

Polkaroo comes to Markham

Children beware! Polkaroo and the Polka Dot Door are coming to the Markham area on Sunday Oct. 4 in a show called Tricks. "Polka Dot Door Live" is adapted from the original TVOntario's children's television program. The presentation is sponsored by the Optimist Club of Unionville.

Polkaroo and the gang will do two performances at the Markham Theatre at 1 and 3 p.m. Adult and children ticket prices are $7 each.

The original television show has entertained children across North America for 16 years. TVOntario says about 250,000 Ontario children watch the show daily.

Also, the television show encourages active participation through play instead of passive watchers.

The Optimists will use proceeds from the event to fund the development of nature trails through the Unionville and Markham areas.

Sandra Beech will entertain the kids at the Markham Fair on Friday and Saturday in the special events pavillion.
