

On the boards

Dig for it. Bruce Gibbon (15) of the G & R Flooring Jets battles along the boards with Wayne Jackson (7) of the Green's Restaurant North Stars and another unidentified player during Stouffville Amateur Hockey League (SAHL) action on Sunday at the Recreation Centre. The match was a closely fought battle throughout, with the North Stars eventually coming out on top 4-3.

Danny Wilson takes two Ballantrae tennis titles

For the third year in a row Danny Wilson has won the Ballantrae Tennis Club Junior Singles Championship. Wilson beat out Derrick Schellenberg in the closely fought final match 6-4 and 7-6 in a tie-breaker. The lead changed hands many times in the match before Wilson finally came out on top. Wilson, along with partner Debbie Sansom, also took the Junior Doubles Championship 6-4, 3-6, and 6-4 in an entertaining contest over the team of Derrick and Jason Schellenberg.

Danny Wilson, right, won the Ballantrae Tennis Club Junior Singles Championship over Derrick Schellenberg, left, 6-4, 7-6. Wilson, along with partner Debbie Sansom, also won the doubles title.

Gornall nets four for Nords

The Village Landscaping Capitals downed the Farquharson Realty Penguins 7-1 in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League (SAHL) play last Sunday. Peter Mabley and Mike Peden, each with a pair of goals, led the Capitals scoring attack, while singles went to Henry Stevens, Rich Glen and Bob Davies. Bill Grove notched the Penguins lone marker in the contest. In other action, the Green's Restaurant North Stars topped G & R Flooring Jets 4-3. Steve Ramer, Randy Gray, Bob Leger and Wayne Jackson scored for the North Stars, while Brent Stachel had all three goals for the Jets. The Stouffville Travel Flyers edged the Towne Restaurant Kings 4-3. Two goals by Gary Husbands, along with singles from Bill Wetheral and Doug Wilson paced the Flyers. Wayne Emmerson, with a pair, and John Barnett scored for the Kings. The Canadian Tire Blackhawks harpooned the Century 21-Meharg Whalers 8-2. Wayne Harris led the Blackhawks with a hat trick, while Terry Weatherill, with a pair, John Hickman, Bill Corner and Phil Pirie rounded out the scoring. Ron Arends and Bill Ormson replied for the Whalers. Closest match of the day saw the Betz Pools Nordiques battle the Smurthwaite Heating Bruins to a 6-6 draw. Doug Gornall netted four for the Nords, while George Collins and Don Kimura added singles. Don Lloyd and Bill Anderson, both with two goals, along with Wayne McMann and Steve Ellis scored for the Bruins.
