Fall foliage

Garden club students at St. Matthew's Roman Catholic school watched the fruits of their labor settle into the ground this week as the last tree in their garden was planted. Val Lee, President of the school's Parent/Teacher Guild plants the tree while at far left Emily Storey of Sheridan Nurseries (which designed the landscape plan) and Fran Kennedy of Monarch Developments (which paid for it) look on. — Sjoerd Witteveen

Locals help needy kids

Three Markham residents are extending a helping hand to Third World children in need.

The three anonymous residents are now "foster parents" and are helping the children with contributions of $23 a month to the Foster Parents Plan.

In its 50th year, Foster Parents Plan of Canada welcome the three Markham residents who join more than 85,000 other Canadians who support needy children in impoverished countries.

For more information on how you can "adopt" and help support a needy child call toll-free 1-800-268-7174.
