'Memories and Changes'

Teachers publish book

STOUFFVILLE — Two teachers on the staff of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School and one former staff member, now at Brampton, have combined their talents on the publication of a book to be available in February, 1988.

Don Martin, Rick Dewell and John Roberts are near the end of a project that's taken many months to complete. It's entitled "Memories and Changes".

The book, in attractive hard-cover, will be available in all leading stores across the country including John Lord's Books, 29 Main Street East, Stouffville.

For Mr. Roberts, it would seem good things come in threes.

The S.D.S.S. art instructor has been appointed an Associate Teacher with the Faculty of Education, University of Toronto for the year 1987-88. His services will not be lost to Stouffville, however. This extra-curricular activity will take place at the High School here.

Also, Mr. Roberts will conduct a double seminar at a Provincial Conference for intermediate and senior visual arts teachers at the Valhalla Inn, Kitchener, Oct. 21-23. The conference is being sponsored by The Waterloo County Board of Education.
