

Two weeks to go till crafty show

By KAREN GRIMES AND LINDA CONDE

Two weeks before Guild Sale, And all through the Guild, All the creatures were stirring, Their sales stock to build.

Hand made crafts were created, With attention and care, For the Guild sale grew nearer, Members had to prepare.

Christmas is coming, Our big sale is near, November the Fourteenth, Soon will be here.

Like Dasher and Dancer, And Prancer and Vixen, Guild members were sewing, and glueing and fixing.

They arranged and assembled, Attached and accrued, A varied collection, To suit every mood.

There is Tom's tiny furniture, And Gwenne's woven scarves, Karen's geese doorstops, And Judy's pressed flower cards.

Rod's parchment pictures, And Brigitte's dried flowers, All of these crafts, Take hours and hours.

Joyce joyfully created, With her friend Dawn, Many knitted items, And a tree with mittens on.

Nancy's quilted sweaters, The Henley's wood folk art, And Michael's matted photos, All play a big part.

Susan's tole painting, And Mac's wooden birds, Ingrid's porcelain dolls, And log cabin tree skirts.

Karen's pierced lamp shades, The Scott's teddy bears, Linda's red-nosed reindeer, Will all be sold there.

We have Ann's lovely sweaters, Daniel's wooden toys, And a special Christmas table, Just for girls and boys.

Jane has her dolls, Janet has her mice,

Linda's music boxes, Sure sound nice.

Margaret's ceramics, And Mary's knit hats, Corrie's great needlework, And Marjorie's placemats.

Tina's crazy quilt wreaths, Animals and aprons by Joanne, Olive's knit socks, And flowers by Ann.

John's stained glass sun catchers, Bab's lovely smocked frocks, Angela's pine cone wreaths, And Gail's stuffed horse that rocks.

Della's nice pottery, And El's cloth dolls, Wait a minute, hold it, We just can't list it all.

If you want to know more, You must come and see and hear, About the Markham Guild of Village Crafts, Sale of the year.

November Fourteenth, Centennial Arena, Penalty Box Lounge, We sure hope to see you.

We'll open the doors, Sharp at 10 A.M. We've got some great Christmas gifts, Hope to see you then.

Remember Saturday, November 14, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., is the Markham Guild of Village Crafts Annual Christmas Sale. It will be held at the Penalty Box Lounge, second floor of the Markham Centennial Arena, on the corner of McCowan and Bullock.

Featured this year is a special table with items under $5.00 for children 12 and under to do their Christmas shopping. Proceeds from the Children's Table will be donated to the Children's Ward of our new Markham-Stouffville Hospital.

We would also like to announce that noted artist Dorsey James will be the featured speaker at the general meeting of the Markham Guild of Village Crafts, Tuesday, November 10, at 8 p.m. The Guild building is located at 98 Church Street in Markham. The general public is welcome.

Pick of the pound

Adorable Baxter was born at the kennel. He's six weeks old and of terrier stock. Anyone interested in giving this pup a good home (or any other animal) should contact Markham Animal Shelter at 887-5012. Brent Lowery

Get your peanuts!

Still time to shell out peanuts for tonight's trick-or-treaters. The Kidney Foundation is continuing it's Peanut campaign.

A nutritious and inexpensive snack for Hallowe'en, the Kidney foundation offers roasted peanuts in $2.00 bags containing 15 handy snack packs. Proceeds will go to finding a cure for kidney disease.

The goal of the peanut campaign is $288,000 and as of October 19th $278,000 had been sold.

To support the Kidney Foundation and to order your peanuts call Suzanne Grattan at 475-0069.

Is your child an "A" student hiding behind a "C" grade?

We can develop the self-confidence and motivation required to improve classroom performance.
