

Mayor's touch appreciated

Dear Editor:
Looking at Stouffville's Main Street this summer, I'm reminded of the saying: "If you look after the pennies, the dollars will take care of themselves."
Putting this another way, "if you look after the little things, the big things will take care of themselves."

Mayor Fran Sainsbury is obviously conscious of the little things—painted fire hydrants, new street signs, a clean roadway, etc. This concern shows in the over-all appearance of our town. Perhaps there are others, including the Business Improvement Area Board who deserve equal praise, but it's easy to see Mayor Sainsbury has been a participant, even behind the scenes.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Georgina Fleming,
Main Street East,
Stouffville
