Daniel Stainton

Weekend deliveries the hardest to do

By DENISE McDONALD
Waking up and facing the prospect of going outside on cold blustering Saturday mornings may be a dismal prospect for most local residents, but it hasn't kept Daniel Stainton from faithfully delivering the Stouffville Tribune for the past year.

"It's hard getting up when you know you don't have to go to school and you have the whole day off, but it has to be done," he said.

Daniel is The Stouffville Tribune's carrier of the month for October.

According to the young Vanzant Crescent resident, he originally became a carrier a year ago last October because his friends all had routes.

"When one of them said he was giving it up, I decided to take it," he said.

Originally starting with 75 customers on the Manitoba Street route, that total has since been reduced to 62 after he decided to take over Stouffer Street/Vanzant Crescent, one he cited as an "amazing route close to home."

And while most carriers claim to suffer from the irritating prospect of customer's dogs facing them at front doors, Daniel claimed he's been very lucky.

"There's only our dog really, all the rest are kept in the backyard."

With the earnings saved from his route and a part-time job cutting lawns and helping out his Grandpa, Daniel said he was recently able to purchase a windsurfer and bicycle.

For being chosen carrier of the month, Daniel was presented with a personalized plaque, a reusable nylon lunch bag, two tickets to the Magic Festival and a large complimentary pizza at Luigino's Pizzeria on Edward Street.
