Board of Trade lunch

Distinguished accountant is guest speaker

A chartered accountant who has been interviewed on TV, radio and in newspapers is the guest speaker at the next luncheon of the Markham Board of Trade.

Lyman MacInnis is a senior partner with Touche Ross and Company who has written books and articles about managing money and was the 1977 winner of the Queen's Jubilee Medal for outstanding contribution to his profession.

He'll speak at the regular Board of Trade luncheon on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at noon.

MacInnis is no stranger to the speaker's podium. He is a former instructor of the Dale Carnegie course in public speaking and leadership and has done more than 3,000 radio broadcasts and more than 200 TV appearances.

He was executive producer of the TV series Running Your Own Business, a frequent host of the TV show You and Your Income Tax and was instrumental in the production of the TV and film series, Money Smart.

MacInnis has also been involved at the executive level of both the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario and the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. He also holds positions on Hockey Canada's board of directors and the board of Junior Achievement of Canada.

Tickets for the luncheon at the Chimo Hotel are $25 for members and $30 for non-members. They're available by calling 474-0730.

Magna staff honored

Employees of Markham-based Magna International will be toasted at a party today in honor of work well done on parts for the 1988 Lincoln Continental.

Magna staff and their families are spending the day at Simeon Park on Woodbine Ave. north of Bethesda Sideroad to celebrate the accomplishment. The company has supplied two heated tents as well as refreshments and a visit from Santa Claus.

The party coincides with Ford Motor Company's Continental Caravan Supplier Tour which wraps up in Gormley today. Seven 1988 Lincoln Continentals will be on display at the park.

The 62-city tour has provided a sneak preview of the Continental Lincoln's first front-wheel drive car.
