Christmas music with a difference

Unionville High School's award-winning musicians are presenting a Christmas concert to show off their talent.

The evening will include choir music as well as concert and jazz band numbers.

Unionville High's musical awards include seven first place Toronto Kiwanis Music Festival awards and two scholarships totalling $400 in 1987.

At the concert the Senior, Intermediate and Junior Bands, the Jazz and Senior Choirs and the String and Jazz Ensembles will be performing selections ranging from Bach's Prelude and Fugue in G minor and the Hallelujah Chorus to I Got Rhythm and selections from the Hit Broadway Musical Les Miserables.

The Unionville High School Christmas Concert will be taking place in the Markham Theatre for the Performing Arts on Dec. 2 and 3 at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students and seniors. They are available by calling the Box Office at 479-0201 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Visa and Master Charge accepted.

Bank burned by funny money

Police said an unknown suspect used counterfeit money to make a loan payment at the Unionville branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia on Hwy 7.

According to police reports, the suspect tendered five phoney $20 bills to make the payment.

Drunk driver hits parked car

Police charged a 29-year-old Markham man of Beckwith Cres. with driving while impaired last Saturday night.

Police said a car was spotted driving in an erratic manner on the Don Valley Parkway. Witnesses later saw the same car slam into a parked car.
