

Commencement a night of magic for award-winning SDSS students

Commencement Night was an evening to remember for award-winning students of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School including valedictorian Jon Petrie, (left), congratulated here by Principal Peter Bright.

Graduates Suzanne Holbein and Ian Lindsay exchange romantic glances and corsages prior to the processional into the High School gymnasium. Ian and Suzanne plan to be married next year.

Grade 13 graduate Lindsey Baston receives her diploma from Principal Peter Bright. Lindsey's enrolled at the University of Guelph.

Grade 13 graduate Heather Johannessen receives her diploma from Principal Peter Bright. Heather's attending Seneca College.

Pam Powell, now in Grade 13, receives her coveted School Letter from Paul Sinclair, President of the Student Council.

Velvet Wideaman, a graduate of Grade 13, receives her diploma from Principal Bright. Velvet's enrolled at the University of Western Ontario.

The Music Mania Award in Performing Arts was won by Janice Peterson (centre) and Jane White. The presentation was made by Doris Harvey.

Grade 13 graduate Julie Harris receives her coveted School Letter from Student Council President Paul Sinclair.

Kelly Simonds (right) currently enrolled at George Brown College, presents former classmate Kim Barton with her Commencement corsage. Kelly resides on Clarke Street. Kim on Alderwood Street in Stouffville.

Brother and sister graduates Wayne and Anita Cheng look over the 1987 Commencement program, with former S.D.S.S. principal John Nikl (for now of Markham). Wayne and Anita are both attending Toronto University.

-Jim Thom