Red Wings top SIHL standings

Action in the Stouffville Intermediate Hockey League (SIHL) has been underway for six weeks now, with the A & S Construction Red Wings sitting in top spot with a record of 5-1.

League organizer Keith McGuckin said the line of Doug Feasby, Danny Maillet and Kerry Hewson has been especially effective for the Red Wings and is one of the key reasons they are atop the six-team league.

In second position are the Stouffville Stockyard Flyers with a record of 4-1.

The strong play of goaltender Richard Bartley has helped the Flyers this season, along with the efforts of Pat Duncaif and Claude Maillet, McGuckin said.

The Northtown, Texaco Maple Leafs are in third place with a record of 3-3.

The Leafs are led by Rob Lane and Rod Harris (former members of the Junior B Markham Waxers) and Lorne Potter.

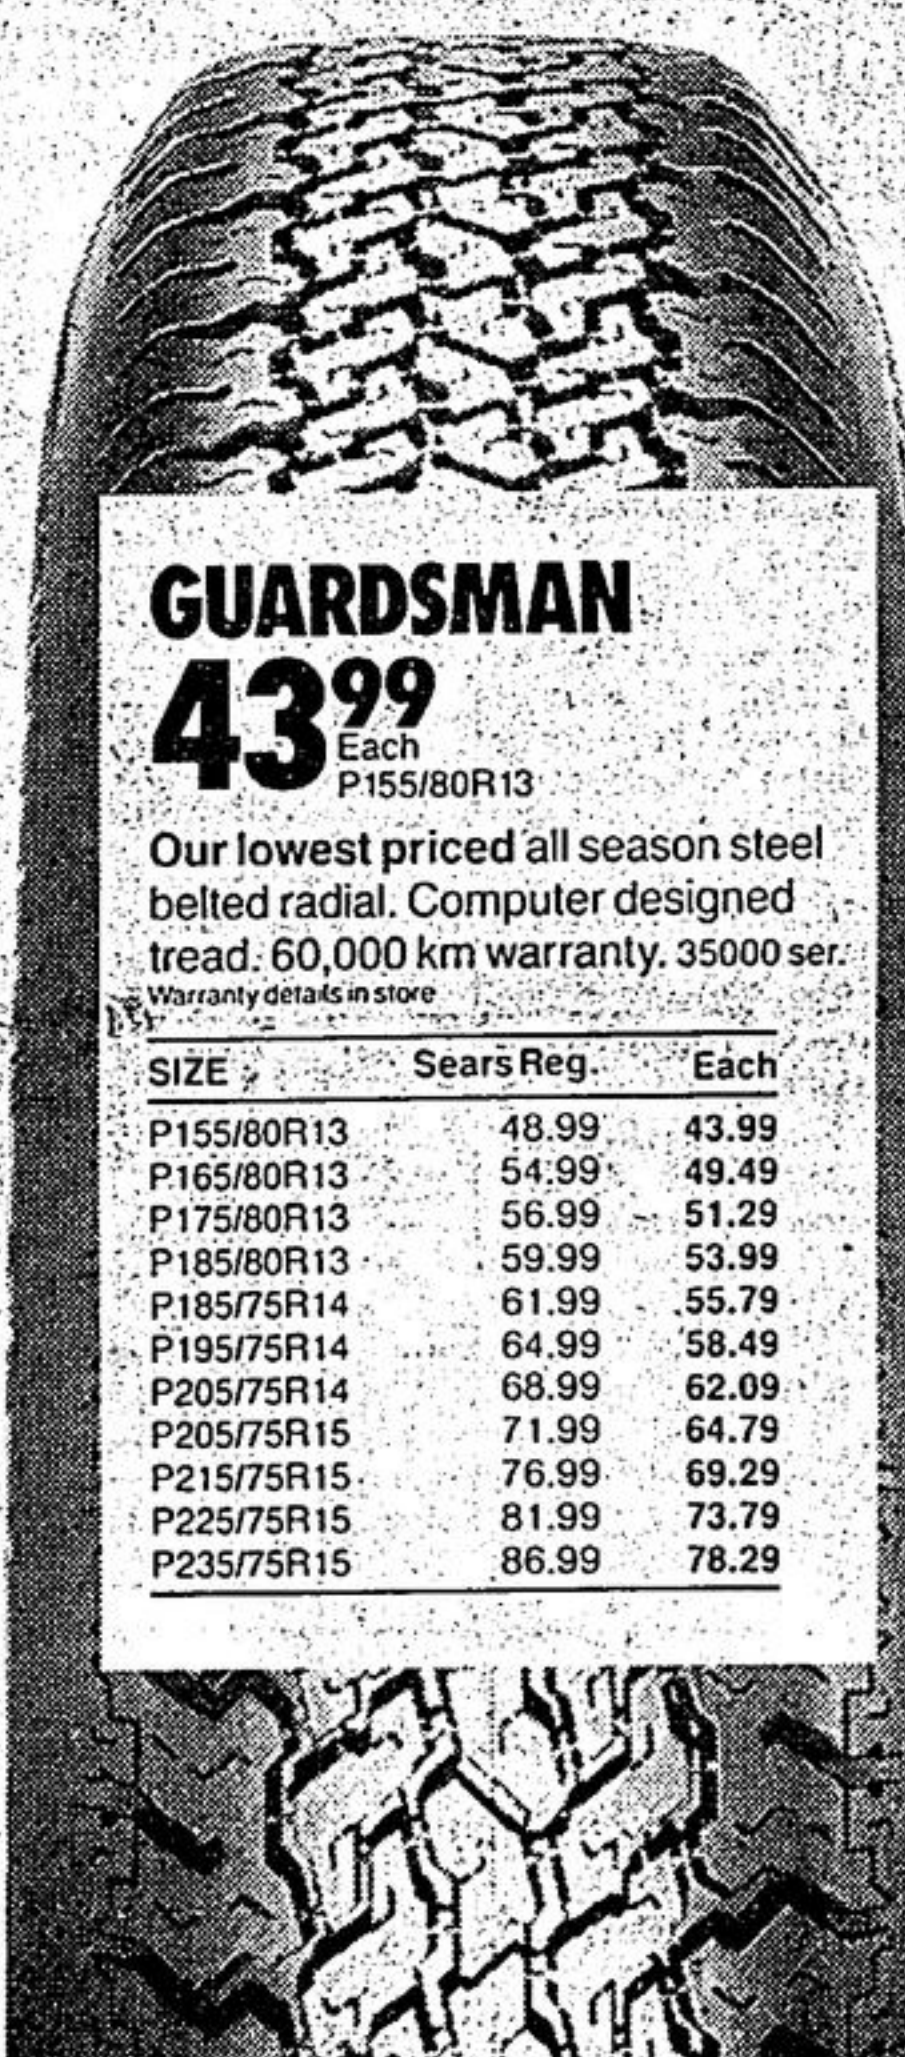

With a record of 2-4, the Dave Blow Insurance Whalers are in fourth spot. Barry Greenshields, Ted Waite and Steve Schell have been playing well for the squad this season.

The Canadian Tire Blackhawks are in fifth place with a record of 1-3-1. They are led by Doug Todd, Mike Feasby and Peter Sinclair.

Taking the bottom rung of the ladder in league standings are the Burger Treat Penguins who got off to a rough start but are starting to turn the tide, McGuckin said. The Penguins record is 1-4-1.
