Jon Hall top athlete and student

By ALAN SHACKLETON
Jon Hall is both a top athlete and top student at Stouffville District Secondary School.

The 17-year-old Grade 12 student at SDSS, is a leader on both the school's volleyball and basketball teams while attaining honors status academically for the last two years.

The Booth Drive resident is also actively involved as a leader of a Youth Group at his church, Stouffville Pentecostal.

The group is made up of about 20 youngsters between the ages of 13 to 20, and they meet regularly for social events and Bible studies.

Jon has been involved with the group for the last five years.

Born in Scarborough, Jon and his family (parents Grant and Faith and brother Jeremy, 15) have lived in Stouffville for the past 12 years.

Prior to attending SDSS, Jon was a student at Summitview Public School.

While at Summitview, he became interested in basketball and volleyball through Phys Ed teacher Jim Fletcher. Mr. Fletcher is now a teacher at SDSS, and coach of the senior boys teams that Jon plays on.

"Mr. Fletcher is the main reason I got into those sports at public school, and now he's followed me to high school," Jon joked.

With his high marks Jon could choose any career he wishes, but said he has yet to make a decision what his future may hold.

"I have no real idea of what my plans will be after SDSS," he said. "I think that a job in the construction or building industry would be interesting, though."

Along those lines, his favorite subject at school is building construction, taught by Mr. Currie.

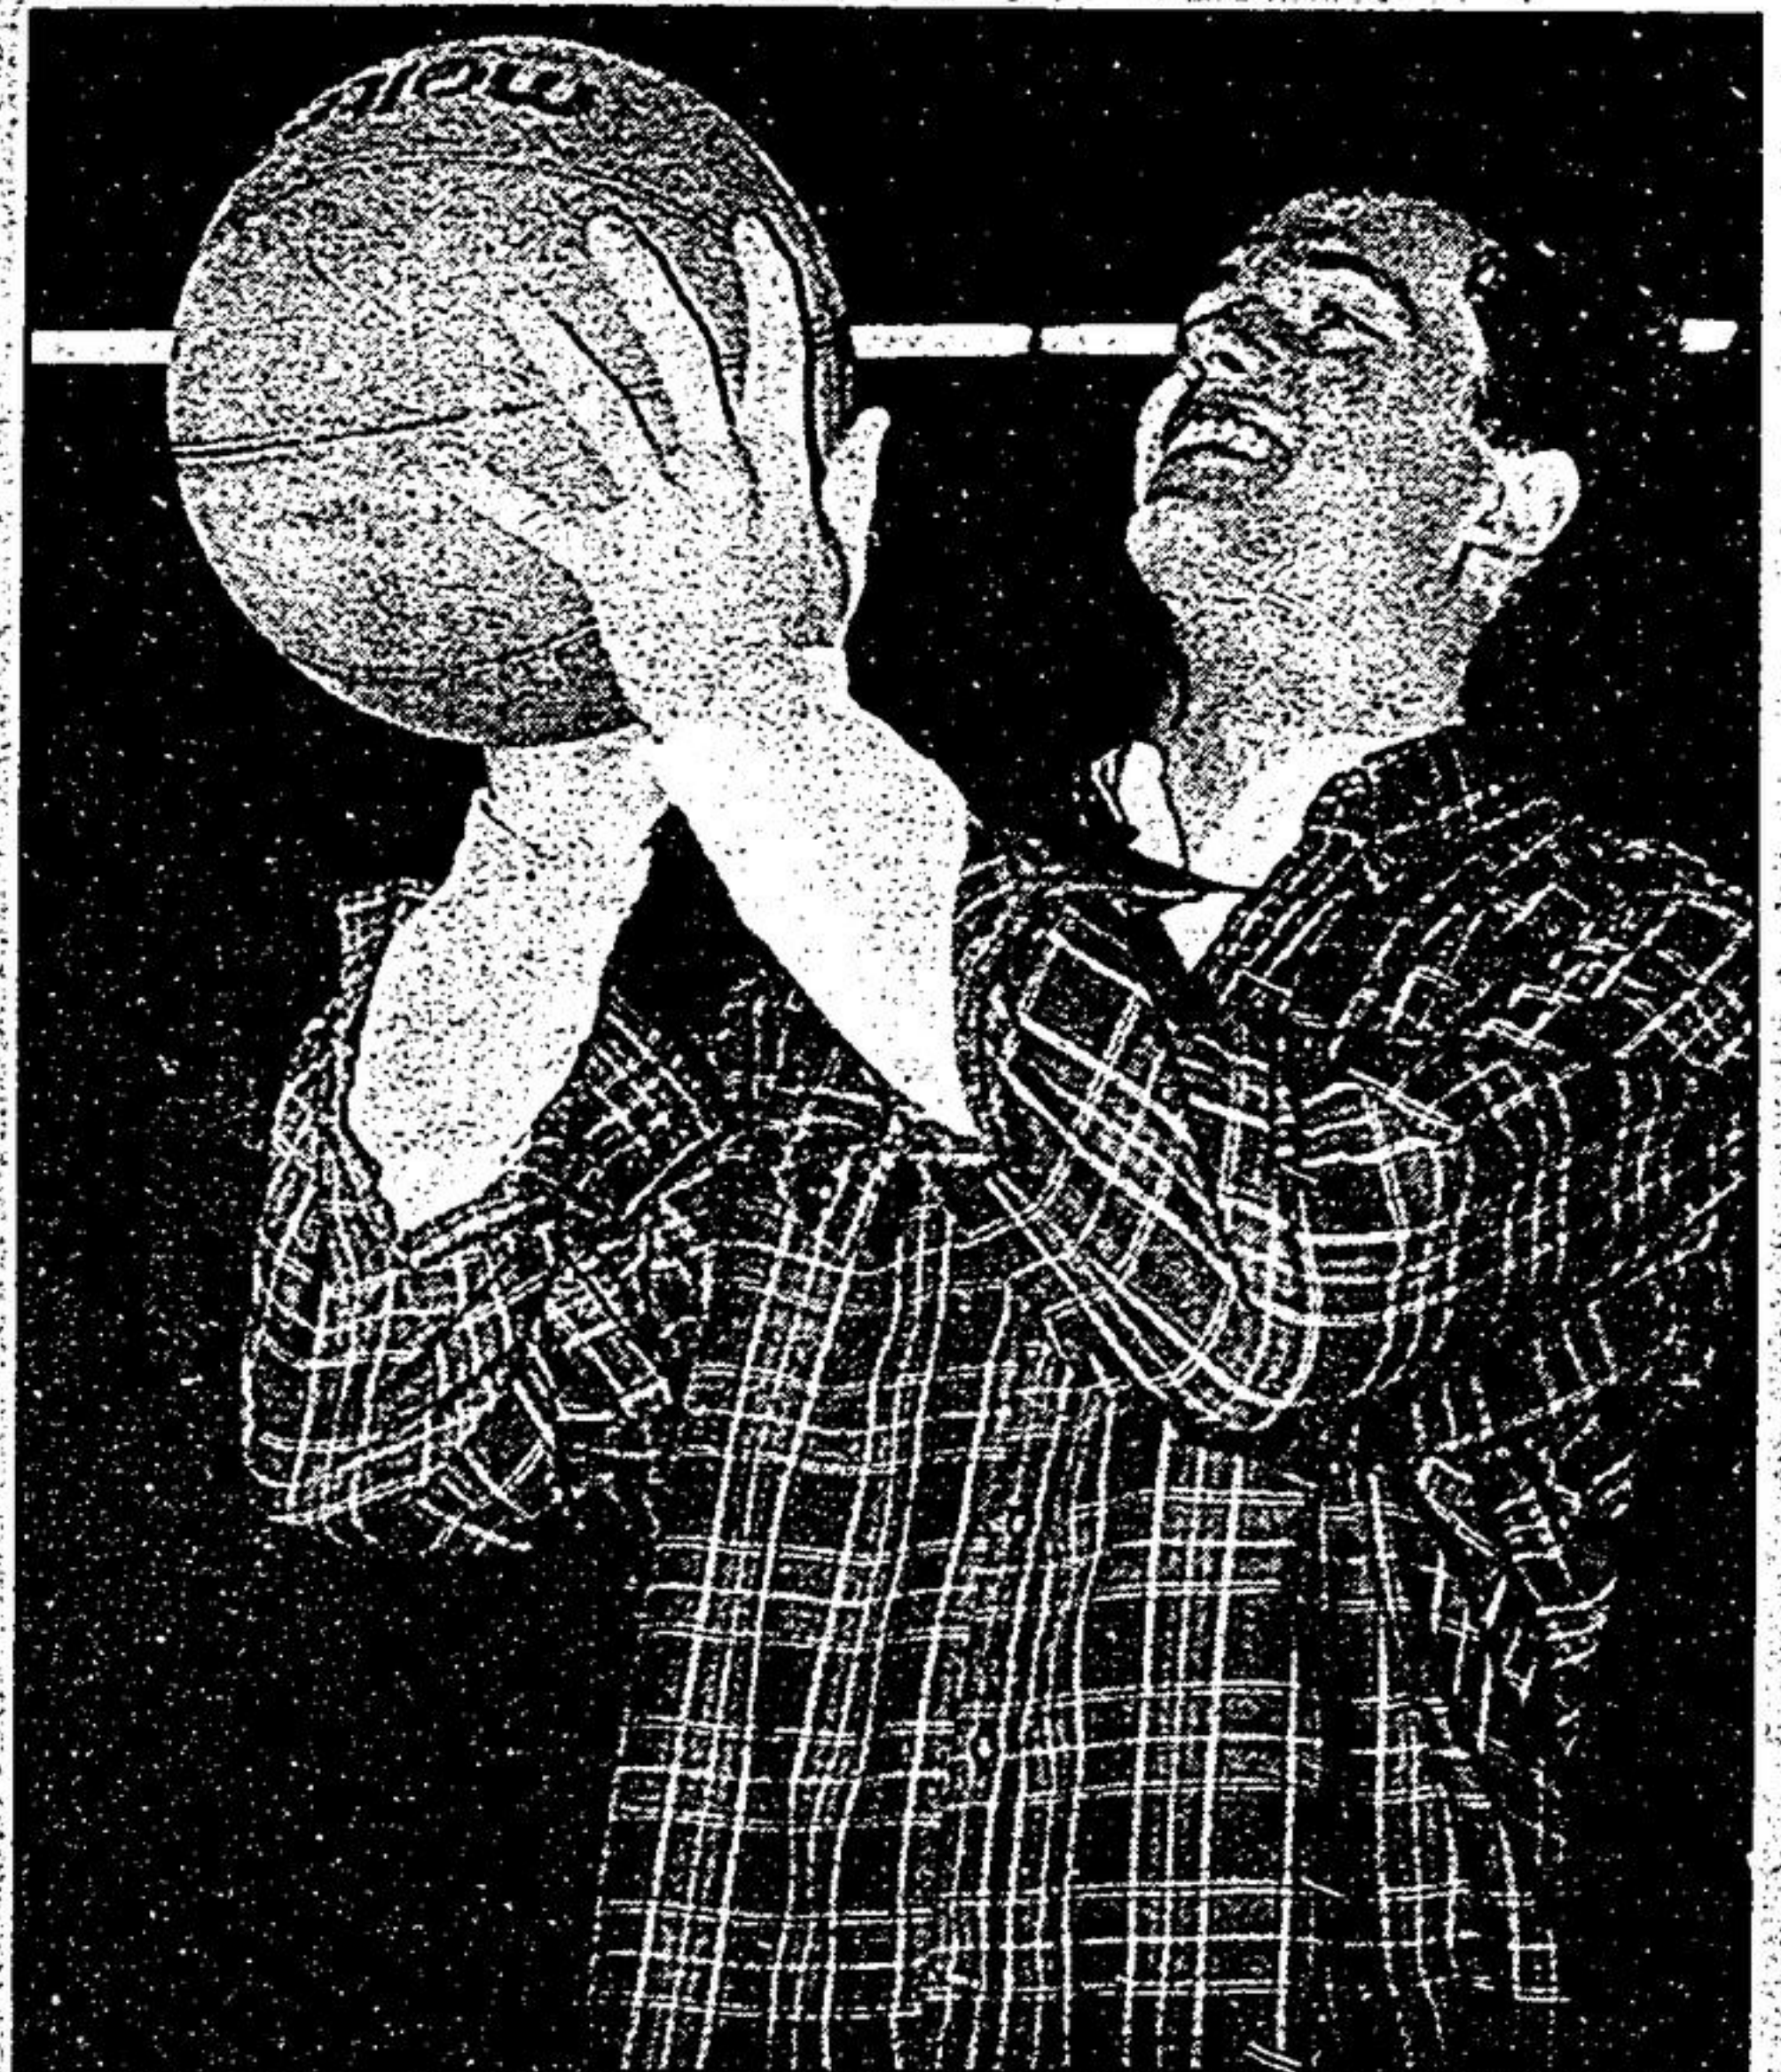

Jon said Mr. Currie and Mr. Fletcher are the teachers who have had the biggest influence on him while at SDSS.

Coach Fletcher added that Jon's hard work on the basketball and volleyball court are a great asset to the teams.

"I'm really impressed with Jon's attitude and dedication," Mr. Fletcher said.

Jon's play at the recent York

Region Volleyball Championships helped the SDSS Spartans win the title in a close contest over Bayview, the coach said.

Jon Hall, a Grade 12 student at Stouffville Secondary School, gets ready to shoot some baskets during a break from studies. The 17-year-old Booth Drive, Stouffville resident is a top athlete, excelling in basketball and volleyball, as well as an honor student at SDSS.
