

Bargain Harolds packs 'em in

Bargain Harolds opened its doors Wednesday on the site of Stouffville's first indoor mall, 550 Main Street West. Shoppers appeared impressed with Bargain Harolds' prices and future expectations of a new shopping centre.

The friendliness of the Bargain Harolds' staff prompted favorable comment from customers. There are six check-out counters, all of which are utilized during busy periods. The cashier here is Elizabeth Elson of Stouffville.

Most patrons prefer to shop for themselves. But when assistance is needed, clerks like Gina Erwin are on hand to help.

Most Grade 13 graduates choose higher education

STOUFFVILLE — Sixty-three students received Honor Graduation Diplomas at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School's Commencement Exercises, Nov. 13.

What are these young people doing now?

Through the co-operation of Mr. Ron Eldridge, the Program organizer, The Tribune has learned the placements of the following:

Shane Asa, York University (Business); Warren Barbour, Toronto University (Life Sciences); Steve Barclay, Guelph University (Bachelor of Arts); Charlie Barrotta, Centennial College (Business); Lindsey Baston, University of Guelph (Biological Science); Eric Beam, Brock University (Business Administration); Susan Bibby, Western University (Science); Lisa Boyd, Western University (Science); Michelle Brown, Western University (Economics); Anita Cheng, Toronto University (Arts and Science); Wayne Cheng, Toronto University (Arts and Science); Stacey Copas, Seneca College (Advertising); Josie Degli-Angeli, Trent University (Education); Tracey Duke, Toronto University (Science); Lucy Elliott, Guelph University (Nutrition); Maureen Ferguson, Seneca College (Legal Administration); George Flinttiss, (Restaurant Manager); Stephen Gayton, Western University (Engineering); Cathy Graham, Wilfrid Laurier University (Economics); Durwin Gray, Capenwray Bible College, London, England; Keith Grose, Centennial College (Legal Assistant); Linda Hachey, University of Waterloo, (Systems Design Engineering); Patricia Hammond, Seneca College, (Registered Nursing Diploma Program); Julie Harris, Sears

Staff and Humber College in '88; Robert Hart, Guelph University (Bachelor of Arts Program); Mark Henriques, Ontario Bible College; Heidi Hirsch, Graphic Transportation Services; Heather Hoover, University of Waterloo, (Science); Heather Johannesen, Seneca College, (Registered Nursing Program); Jill Keith, University of Waterloo, (Human Kinetics and Leisure Studies Program); Michael Keuken, Trent University (Education); Tiina Krabi, Toronto University, (Liberal Arts Program); Christine Kuhn, Toronto University, (Arts and Social Sciences); Antonia Lidster, McMaster University, (Business Administration); Juliette MacMillan, Seneca College, (Gerontology); Derek Mann, member of Christian Vocal Choir 'The Continentals', California; Paul Mauti, Laurier University, (Economics); Elaine McCullough, Toronto Star, (Accounting); Cindy McNeil, Trent University, (Bachelor of Arts Program); Leslie Mitchinson, Toronto University, (Language Major); Ailsa Montgomery, York University this spring; Leanne Mumford, York University, (Physical Education and Recreation); Susan Murphy, Western University, (Administration and Commercial Studies); Rebecca Ness, University of Guelph, (Finance); Karen Nugent, Western University, (Physical Education); Janice Peterson, Queen's University, (French and German); Jonathon Petrie, Guelph University, (English); Richard Piette, Guelph University, (Biological Science); Marcy Pyke, Ottawa University, (Bachelor of Science Program in Nursing); Sheldon Rae, Ottawa University, (Political Science); Amer Rasul, Toronto University, (Accounting Major); Rob Reid, University of Ottawa, (Honors Criminology); Chris Snooks, Waterloo University, (Honors Mathematics); Cheryl Steiner, University of Manitoba and Canadian Mennonite Bible College; Jim Stephenson, Bayview Secondary School; Lisa Sullivan, Waterloo University, (Arts Program); Sherri Walker, McMaster University, (Physical Education); Renee Wassenaar, York University, (Physical Education); Shelley Whittaker, Toronto University, (Physical and Health Education); Velvet Wideman, Western University, (Social Science); Jeff Zeck, Radio College of Canada (Honors Technology Program).

Editor's Mail

Johnson favored on guts alone

Dear Editor: I am pleased to offer my endorsement of Rick Johnson for the position of Regional Councillor, (Ward 3), Town of Pickering.

I think the highest compliment one can pay an individual is that he/she is genuine, honest and sincere. Rick Johnson is a 'straight shooter' who pulls no punches. His aggressive, hard-nosed style is not one conjured up for a political campaign.

This is Rick's third try for political office in Pickering. In my opinion, this is a tribute to his determination to do battle on behalf of the residents of Ward 3. He doesn't run away from a fight or sit on the fence when it comes to tough political issues.

He is the first to admit that he hasn't wasted every Monday night sleeping through contrived backroom procedures at Pickering Council. He has been around the Town Offices more than enough to learn the real rules of the game; the arm-twisting and deal-making that obtain results.

Princess crowned

YORK REGION — This is a year 19-year-old Teresa Sheardown will never forget.

The King City Secondary School honor student was selected York Region's Dairy Princess at a ceremony in Aurora Oct. 24. She succeeds Kim Little of R.R. 1, Markham, York's Dairy Princess for 1986-87.

In addition, Teresa is princess of the Ontario Jersey Association, spending most of this week at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair.

A second-year student enrolled in a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture degree course at the University of Guelph, Teresa is the daughter of John and Helen Sheardown, R.R. 1, Schomberg.

Goodwood W.I hosts pot-luck supper event

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
FOURTH LINE — On Monday, Dec. 7, the Goodwood Women's Institute is hosting a community pot-luck supper in the Goodwood Hall beginning at 6 p.m. A program will follow featuring local talent. The old piano, unused for many years in the former hall, has been moved to the Community Centre and hopefully will be 'all tuned up' and included as part of the evening's entertainment.

Karen Stayther is pleased to have her mother, Mrs. Rose Lane visiting with her for a week from Vancouver. She's able to get reacquainted with her two small granddaughters, Sonia and Christine.

Margaret Huggins is feeling much better after a couple of days to recuperate from having all four wisdom teeth extracted. She and baby Sarah spent some of the time under the care of Blanche Taylor. Mrs. Marjorie Cooper and Mrs. Blanche Taylor visited with Mrs. Hazel Morris Sunday afternoon. Hazel is a patient in Port Perry Hospital following surgery. Until her recovery is complete, Goodwood's 'Kitchen Things' at the four corners will be closed.

'Holiday Glitter' is the title given to an evening program, Thurs., Dec. 3 hosted by the Christian Women's Club in the Community Hall. Heather and Joanne will demonstrate the making of decorations and a ladies' trio will bring 'sparkling notes' of praise. The gifted speaker is Mary Adams from Atlanta, Georgia. She's described as 'humorous and vivacious'. Time of the fellowship is 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

I wonder how many remember this poem from the Second Reader, (1909)? It's entitled

'November'
The leaves are fading and falling
The winds are rough and wild
The birds have ceased their calling
But let me tell you my child
Though day by day as it closes
Doth darker and colder grow
The roots of the bright red roses
Will keep alive in the snow

There must be rough, cold weather
The winds and rains so wild
Not all good things together
Come to us here, my child
So when some dear joy loses
Its beautiful summer glow
Think how the roots of the roses
Are kept alive in the snow.

St. Mark's overflow

Dear Mr. Thomas: Further to our informal discussion Nov. 13, I wish to add and reiterate some of these points with regard to the situation at St. Mark's School, Stouffville.

The maximum capacity at our school is 257.

The enrollment projection for 1987-88 is 370 students with six portables on site.

The enrollment projection for 1988-89 is 410 students with nine portables on site.

We are able to effectively carry out all school programs for the present. However, looking to the long term, an addition and renovations to St. Mark's would add permanent classrooms and provide expansion to the gymnasium, the library and the office areas.

The Board has placed St. Mark's on the capital forecast for the 1989 school year. What now must follow is the process of applying to the Ministry of Education to make this proposal a reality.

I appreciate your interest in communicating this information to the community.

Barbara Bodkin, Principal

Blend of beautiful voices at Gormley Missionary Church service

The Youth Chorale of the Stouffville Missionary Church provided the special music Sunday morning at the Gormley Missionary Church. Participants were, (left to right), Audrey Brumell, Tammy Stonehouse, Faye Rosenberger, Susan Rosenberger, (pianist); Valerie Hoover, Kris Hoover, Wendy Houghton and Colleen Wideman.

—Jim Thomas