

That lonesome feeling

Though Stouffville Novice Clipper goalie Evan Boyd has defencemen to the left of him and defencemen to the right of him, he has none in front of him and that's where he needs them as a Bowmanville Toro player goes after a loose puck. The bigger, more experienced Toros beat the Clippers 5-2 Friday night at the Recreation Centre.

Toros bull past Novice Clippers

The Bowmanville Toros ran over the Stouffville Neil Patrick Novice Clippers 5-2 Friday night at the Recreation Centre. The bigger, more experienced Toros built up a 4-0 lead before Kyle Norton netted the Clippers first goal in the second period.

Andrew Hutchison, on a nice feed from Adam Crowder, scored the other Clipper marker midway through the third. Clint Glover also collected an assist on the goal. Hutchison and Dan Armour were credited with assists on Norton's marker.

Bowmanville took the play to the Clippers all night long, and if not for some great saves by Evan Boyd between the pipes, including an absolute beauty in the third when he batted a sure goal out of the air with his glove, the outcome could have been a lot worse.

The Toros opened scoring early in the first on a high wrist shot, then went ahead by two on a four-on-four skater situation late in the period.

The Stouffville penalty killing unit of Adam Crowder, Ryan King, Clint Glover and Dan Armour had done a good job with Andrew Hutchison in the box, prior to the goal. The Novices host arch-rivals

Port Perry this Friday at the Recreation Centre in their fourth meeting of the season. Game time is 7 p.m.

SAHL North Stars put 17 goals into empty Jets net

Green's Restaurant North Stars pumped 17 goals into an empty net to beat the G & R Flooring Jets 17-1 in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League Action Sunday at the Recreation Centre. The Jets had no goalie for the game, but went ahead and played anyway, which did wonders for the North Stars statistics.

Randy Gray, with five goals led the assault, while Wayne Jackson potted four, Angelo Papagianis three, and Bruce Wilcock two, along with singles from Bob Leger, Art Nicholson and Mike Jones.

Ken Smelser scored the only goal for the Jets.

In other SAHL action, a hat trick by Ron Evans powered the Betz Pools Nordiques to a 6-1 win over Canadian Tire Blackhawks.

Doug Gornall, with a pair, and Neil Newton rounded out the Nord's scoring, while Gary Yoshida replied for the Blackhawks.

Towne Restaurant Kings doubled Stouffville Travel Flyers 6-3 on the strength of a Randy Lee hat trick.

Two goals from Wayne Emmeron and single by John Barnett completed the Kings offence. Jim Teeter, Ron Martyn and Dave Turner scored for the Flyers.

Village Landscaping Capitals topped Farquharson Realty Penguins 3-1 on goals by Tim Lewis, Larry Penny and Rick Glen. Wally Crowder had the Pens only marker.

Century 21 - Meharg Whalers spread 'out' the offence to beat Smurthwaite Heating Bruins 4-1. In games played Sunday, Nov. 15, the Stouffville Travel Flyers grounded the G & R Flooring Jets 7-1.

In other SAHL action, Betz Pools Nordiques edged Century 21 - Meharg Whalers 2-1. Village Landscaping Capitals and Green's Restaurant North Stars battled to a 2-2 tie.
