Town of Markham Aquatic Club swimmers set the pace recently taking top honors and graduation certificates in competitions at a Pennant Meet hosted by the club.

Swimmers competed in gold, silver and bronze categories at the event, copping honors in all categories.

Several swimmers met cut off times to graduate to higher levels while others placed in various positions in different events.

Lori Micheff swam to a first place finish in the Girls Gold 100-metre Fly and a sixth in the Gold 200-metre backstroke.

Beth Bissell graduated in the Girls Silver level in the 100-metre Fly and took a fourth in the Gold 200-metre individual medley.

Andrea Pivetta was first in the Silver 100-metre Fly and sixth in the Gold 200-metre breaststroke, while Samantha Boyle came second in the Girls Silver 100-metre Fly.

Elsbeth Hornbrook finished second in the Girls Gold 100-metre freestyle event and third in the Gold 200-metre Fly. Teammate Samantha Emer took third in the Silver 100-metre Fly and fourth in the Gold 200-metre back.

A sixth place in the Silver 100-metre Fly was taken by Tiffany Peel, while Erica Hodgson graduated in the Bronze 50-metre Fly.

Lee Klein finished fourth in the Bronze 50-metre back and fifth in the Bronze 50-metre Fly, while Sarah Smith swam second in the Gold 200-metre freestyle and fifth in the Gold 100-metre back.

In the Gold 100-metre and 200-metre freestyle competition, Trina Field finished second and fifth, respectively.

Deryn Shepherd swam fifth in the Gold 200-metre breast and sixth in the Gold 200-metre individual medley.

Swimmer Kelley Fraser graduated in the Silver 100-metre back and 100-metre freestyle, while finishing fifth in the Bronze 50-metre breast.

Lisa Rozak took three honors, finishing third in the Silver 100-metre back, third in the Bronze 50-metre breast and fifth in the Silver 100-metre freestyle. Deena Altman took a third in the Bronze 50-metre backstroke.

A second in the Silver 100-metre freestyle and graduation in the Silver 100-metre breast went to Carli Fergusson, while Nicole Hogg took first in the Silver 100-metre breast and sixth in the Bronze 50-metre free.

Fiona Forrest swam fifth in the Silver 100-metre breast and teammate Ligia Fekete finished sixth in the same category.

Daniela Kiguel took third and fifth in the Gold 200-metre breast and the Gold 200-metre, respectively, while Ilana Mantell swam fourth in the Gold 200-metre breast.

In relay swimming action, Smith, Hornbrook, Kiguel and Field took a second in the Gold 200-metre freestyle, while a first went to Shepherd, Mantell, Bissell and Micheff in the Silver event.

Other honors went to Joelle Allen (graduation from Silver 100-metre free), and Cherrie Chiu (third in Silver 100-metre freestyle).

MAC's boys did as well at the pennant competition.

Steve Hary graduated in the Silver 100-metre freestyle, while finishing first in the Bronze 50-metre Fly and fifth in the Silver 100-metre back.

Tim Mackwood passed the Bronze 50-metre freestyle while finishing second in the 200-metre freestyle and fifth in the 200-metre back.

A first, second and fifth went to Jeff Knight for his work in the Bronze 50-metre freestyle, Gold 200-metre and Gold 200-metre freestyle.

Ryan Newman took two third place finishes and a sixth for the Bronze 50-metre freestyle, Gold 200-metre back and the Gold 200-metre freestyle.

Swimmer Mark Juhasz took two seconds in the Gold individual medley and the Gold 200-metre breast.

A third and fourth place finish in the Gold 200-metre individual medley and the Gold 200-metre back rounded out the day for Brent Boyle, who also graduated in the Bronze 50-metre freestyle.

Mike Pickard swam second in the Bronze 50-metre freestyle, as well as fifth in the Gold 200-metre individual medley and sixth in the Gold 200-metre back.

A third and fourth place finish in the Silver 100-metre back and Bronze 50-metre freestyle went to Sean McFarlane, while Ryan Armstrong took a sixth in the Silver 100-metre back and third in the Bronze 50-metre breast.

Other swimmers who received graduation honors were Bryan Chung (Silver 100-metre breast), Dennis Lau (Silver 100-metre breast), Marc Bryan (Silver 100-metre breast) and Nathan Ewen (Silver 100-metre breast).

Ewen also managed a sixth place finish in the Bronze 50-metre freestyle event.

David Yun took a third in the Bronze 50-metre back, while Scott Studor swam first in the Silver 100-metre breast and sixth in the Bronze 100-metre individual medley.

Two fifths went to Chris Kennedy (Boys Silver 100-metre) and Paul Crowley for the Bronze 50-metre breast.

Adam Fox finished second in the Silver 100-metre freestyle, while Jamie White took a sixth in the same event. Peter Jedlovsky finished third in the Gold 100-metre breast.

The boys' relay team of Boyle, Knight, Newman and Mackwood took a third in the 200-metre Gold freestyle event, while Juhasz, Pickard, Jedlovsky and Prior finished second in the Silver 200-metre event.

Unionville OMHA

Hard-fought tie

Unionville Chef Boy-ar-dee Minor Atom Jets fought Orillia to a 3-3 standstill in recent league play. Orillia got off to a fast start scoring three goals in a row in the first and second periods.

Unionville came back with two goals later in the second period and added the tying tally in the final frame. Drew Clair scored two goals for Unionville and Adam Welch netted one. Assists went to Mike Mulligan (2) and Dave Cox.

In another game, Woodbridge downed Unionville 4-2. David Cox and Mulligan scored the local goals.

The Jets split their two league games last week with a 4-2 win over Richmond Hill and a 5-2 loss to Ajax.

The locals scored three unanswered goals in the second and third periods to take the two points from Richmond Hill. Cox (2), Welch and John Dunlap netted goals for Unionville.

Mulligan and Duncan McGinnis scored in the loss to a strong Ajax squad. Dunlap and Welch had the set-ups.

Win, loss, tie

The Unionville Widco Distributing Major Bantam Jets managed a win, a loss and a tie in recent tournament action in Cobourg. In a close game, Unionville edged Port Perry 2-1. Local goal getters were Bill Angelopoulos and Paul Went. Todd Kobe, Chris Jeens, Scott Livermore and Brent Lawson earned assists.

In the Bantams first game Jeens scored Unionville's lone goal in a 3-1 loss to East Gwillimbury. Steel Barrett managed an assist.

In their second game, Jeens scored two goals and Kobe and Barrett added singles to give Unionville a 4-4 tie with Peterborough.

Assists went to Kobe (3), Barrett (3), Paul Went and Jeens.

Conklin nets two

A pair of goals from Sean Conklin and Dan Cronin provided the steam for the Wade Engineering Peewee's 6-3 win over Orillia in recent league action.

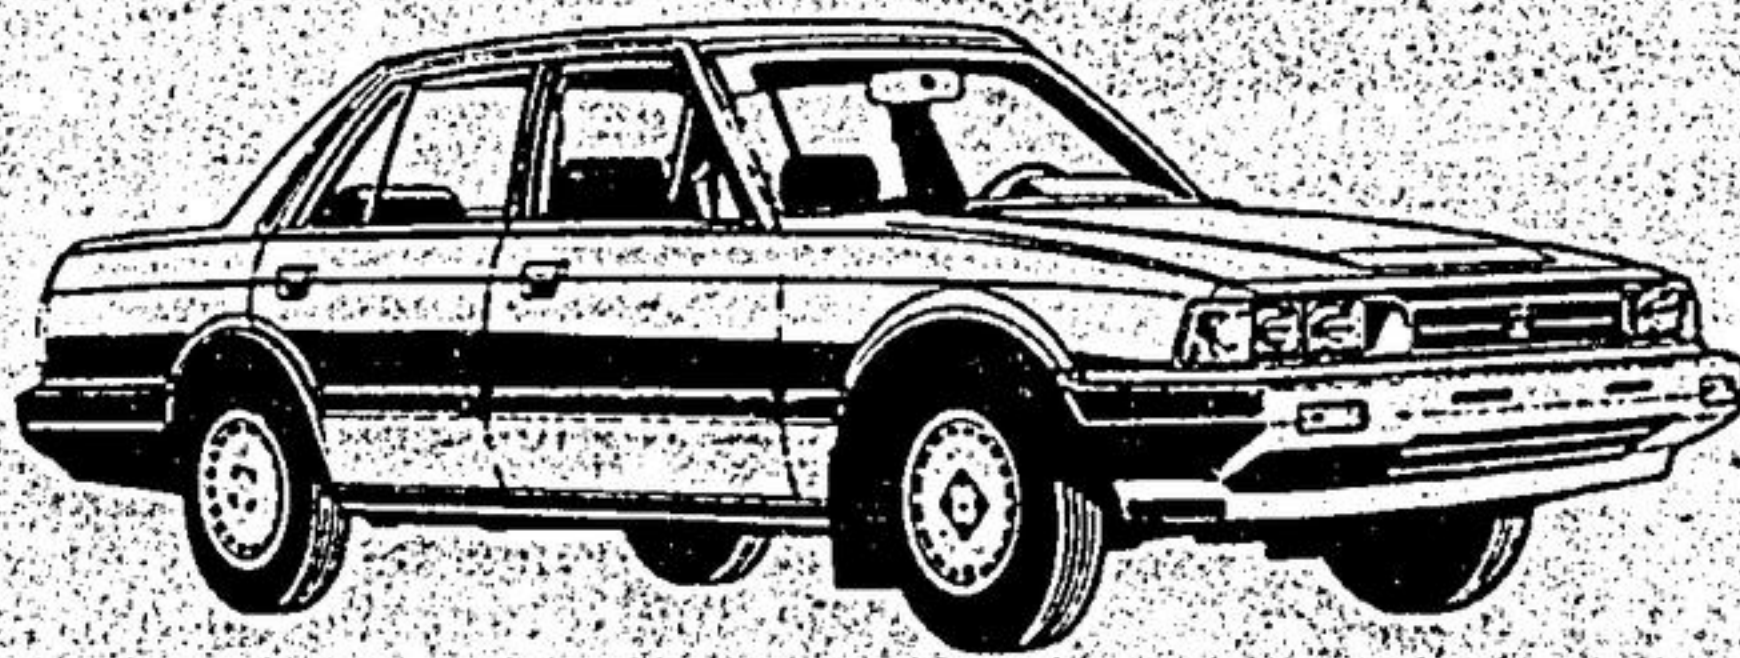

Steve Horsley and Dominic Colangelo completed the offence. Paddy O'Shea (2), Brad Griffin (2), Jesse Dynes, Chris Gervais and Horsley contributed assists.

Chris Stringer's hat trick proved to be in vain after a 7-5 loss to Whitby in recent exhibition play.

Cronin and Griffin connected for the other goals, as set-ups came from Gervais (2), Griffin (2), and Trevor Wong.

In a close 6-5 win over Newmarket, Cronin netted a pair and singles went to Conklin, Griffin, Colangelo, Stringer, and T.J. Pilar.
