Home of the week

This custom-built Tudor-style home on the southeast corner of Warden and 18th Aves. is the Weekender Home of the Week. The house sits on about two acres and is listed with Family Trust Corp. Realtor for $595,000. It features formal living and dining rooms highlighted with a marble fireplace, a floor-to-ceiling stone fireplace in the family room and sunroom off the kitchen. Upstairs there are five bedrooms. The master bedroom includes a six-piece ensuite bath, a marble fireplace and double closets. The other four bedrooms have double closets and the fifth has a cathedral ceiling and could be used as a retreat, office or playroom. The laundry room is on this level. There is a mini apple orchard on the grounds. For more information about this home contact John or Linda Hawco at 294-1372.
