'Girl Next Door'

Elena's lake home is horse-lovers' paradise

By JIM THOMAS
MUSSELMAN'S LAKE
For 17-year-old Elena Coultice, Wagon Wheel Ranch is a horse-lovers' paradise. She has 60 horses from which to choose and 200 acres on which to ride. Her parents, Jim and Stella Coultice, own the property.

Elena's our "Girl Next Door."

Born in Leeds, England, Elena came to Canada at an early age. She's lived at Musselman's Lake for the past 12 years with brother Matthew and sisters Cathy, Nancy, Lydia and Natalie. She's a student in Grade 12 at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.

Elena holds a green belt in judo. She'd like to take lessons in karate. Cathy Gordon was her judo instructor. "I miss it," she says.

It's not all play and no work for Elena. Sundays, she says, are particularly busy at Wagon Wheel. She serves as a trail guide there.

Her parents also host sleigh and wagon rides.

Elena plans to complete Grade 13 and train as a social worker. English is her favorite subject. Mrs. Searle is her favorite teacher.

Elena hopes to participate in a student exchange to Italy in 1988. Several family relatives reside in Naples. She has pen-pals in Greece, Norway, France and England.

Horseback riding is Elena's favorite recreation, despite the fact she's suffered a number of injuries, including a broken arm and a broken leg.

Yes, Elena has a special male friend. He lives in Toronto. They met while (what else but) horseback riding.

Seventeen-year-old Elena Coultice of Musselman's Lake resides at Wagon Wheel Ranch, a horse-lovers' paradise. A Grade 12 student at Stouffville High, Elena hopes to train as a social worker following graduation.

Goodwood was busy

GOODWOOD — Seventeen visitors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold May during Christmas holidays including Beth and Keith Drake and son Craig; Darlene from Kitchener, and Lorna and Jim Rummenie and family of Aurora.

Merlin and Lorraine Harman entertained her parents, Harvey and Verna Bunker, of Minden and brother Don Bunker and family, as well as Mark and Joanne Harman and girls.

Art and Heli Parrott entertained both his family and hers during the Christmas holidays. Later, most returned to the Reuben May home Christmas Day, including Frank and Diane and girls of North Bay and grandson Steven of Thunder Bay.

Tom and Sara Raponi entertained members of their family over the Christmas holidays including John, Maria Louise and Frankie from Brampton; Ida and Vittorio from Stouffville; brother-in-law Tony, also from Stouffville; brother Walter Raponi from Ottawa and Anita and Marselio

Raponi from Goodwood.

Dora and Rienk Monnsma enjoyed visits from son Jack, wife Cathy, and children Brad and Chris from Port Perry, daughter Darlene and husband Bill from Whitby, and Rienk's niece Marion and her husband Gord Deacon from Gormley on Boxing Day.

Gertie and Dick Jones enjoyed a Christmas surrounded by family members when daughter Brenda Ferrari of Toronto, son Brian from Newmarket and son Gary Jones and his wife Lisa dropped in for dinner.

Family and friends helped make Christmas special for the Harper family. Present at the turkey dinner were son Howard and Brenda Harper, Sandy and Nicole; daughter Mildred and Clifford Graham; daughter Bernice and Greg Connell and little Matthew; son Bob and friend Patty Webb, visiting from Toronto.

Lloyd and Charlotte Gayman and daughters, Angela and Kimberley, were the guests of Roy and Helen Lewis of Glasgow, on Christmas Day. Also invited were Lloyd's mother and father, Dorothy and Clayton Gayman of R.R. 1, Unionville; sister Joan and Glenn Grove and family, Doug, Jeff and Francis from Blackstock; sister Marion and Carl Timbers, brother Eric and wife Elaine, and sisters Elaine and Sally, all from Stouffville. Also seated for dinner were Betty and Gary Jansen from Richmond Hill and their children, Jennifer, Michelle, Elizabeth, Ricky, Kristen and Jessica, and brother Wayne and Kate Gayman and their daughter Claire from Chesley.

Wilhamina Detmers and son Tony entertained brother Theodore, wife Dorothy and children, Theodore Jr. and Jacquelin for the month of December, enabling them to spend a family Christmas together.

Barbara and Doug Cormack enjoyed visits from several friends and family relatives over the holidays, including mother Jean Hunter from Toronto; brother Doug and wife Marg Woods, and sons Ryan and Jason, from Burlington, and Don's brother Peter Cormack from Goodwood.

Jack and Edith Clegg had a full house for Christmas dinner when the whole family came together to join in the festivities. Included were Jack Jr., wife Susan, and son Jack from Belgium; son Fred, wife Marg, and Wayne and Darlene from Mississauga; son Rick and Karen from Stouffville; great-granddaughter Donna Clegg and son Christopher; Rick's mother Mrs. Jessie Smith of Goodwood and daughter Lorraine LeBlanc, children Tracey and Darryl, and Don from Calgary.

Christmas week saw several friends and family members call at the home of Jane and Mike Clarke, including father Jake Boyle from Fenelon Falls; brother Barry and wife Linda from Toronto; Linda's mother Elaine Glover from Toronto; and friend Donna Williams and family, Daniel, Maryann and Matthew from Omeme.

Barbara and Chris Brophy spent a wonderful Christmas enjoying the company of their brand new grandson Christopher and his parents Michael and Bonnie, as well as their daughter Tina and Larry Vale and Joshua from Stouffville and their daughter Cathy.

Twelve people gathered at the home of Marlene and Harold Bell on Christmas Day, including Wanda and John Perry from Holland Landing; daughter Lori and Christina of Stouffville; son Stephen, also of Stouffville; son Tim, his wife Karen and daughter Nikki from Zephyr; mother-in-law Maude Bell, Shirley and Norm Ewing, and their daughter Teresa Mackenzie from Goodwood.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT, R.S.O. 1980, CHAPTER 337
AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LAND AND PREMISES KNOWN MUNICIPALLY AS PART OF LOT 30, CONCESSION 4, SOUTH EAST CORNER OF WOODBINE AVENUE AND 19th AVENUE, IN THE TOWN OF MARKHAM, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE
TAKE NOTICE THAT the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Markham on the 15th day of December, 1987 passed a motion of intention to designate the property, including lands and buildings, known municipally as Part of Lot 30, Concession 4, south east corner of Woodbine Avenue and 19th Avenue, of architectural and/or historic interest or value under Part IV of The Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1980, Chapter 337.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:
The Richard Lewis House c. 1850 located on Lot 30, Concession 4 is recommended for designation for architectural significance, as a fine example of a brick Ontario Cottage with Regency and Classical Revival Influence and for historical significance with the Lewis and Francey families who were closely associated with the development of the hamlet of Gormley.

ANY PERSON MAY, within thirty (30) days of the first publication of this Notice, send by registered mail or deliver to the Clerk of the Town of Markham, notice of his or her objection and all relevant facts. If such Notice of Objection is received, the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Markham shall refer that matter to the Conservation Review Board for a Hearing.

DATED at the Town of Markham this 23rd day of December, 1987.

Gary F. Roseblade, C.M.O., C.M.C.
Town Clerk
