Saturday was Stouffville's Day at Dagmar

It seemed like Saturday was Stouffville's Day at Dagmar Ski Resort, Uxbridge Township. Stouffville people, young and old alike, took advantage of perfect weather and snow conditions for an afternoon of downhill and cross-country skiing including Tara Grove, (left), Burkholder Street and Kourtney Ham, Rupert Avenue.

Sweep tourney title

The Stouffville Atom 'Clippers' turned a two-day hockey tournament into an enjoyable winter weekend, scoring three straight victories and taking the Title.

The tourney was played at Smithville.

The Clippers drubbed Paris 9-3; downed Brighton 6-3 and blanked Ancaster 9-0.

Ryan Burkholder led the Stouffville offensive against Paris, counting three goals and adding two assists. Sian Morrison and Phil Pridham each potted a pair. Ryan Jefferson and Jason Reesor netted one each.

Geoff Smith collected four assists. Other assists went to Brent Avery, (2); Phil Pridham, Brian Coughlan and Coulter Carconi one apiece.

Against Brighton, it was again Ryan Burkholder leading the way with another three-goal hat-trick. Roger McMann scored two and Geoff Smith, one. Jason Reesor picked up a pair of assists. Brent Avery, Phil Pridham and Jason Davis had one assist each.

The 9-0 win against Ancaster was anti-climatic following the victory over Brighton. Roger McMann was the 'big gun' with three goals. Geoff Smith and Ryan Burkholder each potted a pair. Brent Avery and Jason Reesor had one apiece. Ryan Jefferson set up four tallies with Phil Pridham and John McKinnon assisting on two. Other points for assists went to Geoff Smith, Sian Morrison, Coulter Carconi and Brian Coughlan.

Peeewees beat Oshawa

Two goals by Brandon Pridham and a three-point night for Trevor Bardell and Franco Santeramo, paced Stouffville Dist. Credit Union Peeewees to a 6-4 victory over Oshawa in their first game of the new year.

Santeramo opened the scoring on a nice passing play from Bardell and Paul Trentadue.

After Oshawa tied it up, Bardell made it 2-1 in Stouffville's favor. He jumped on a lead pass from Santeramo at centre ice and deked the Oshawa netminder out of his pants with a great move close in.

The Clippers extended their lead with Pridham firing two and Darren Zeller notching one.

The score was 5-2 going into the last period.

Stouffville sagged somewhat in the final frame allowing the motor city squad to pot a pair.

David Spoorenberg gave the Clippers a little breathing room, scoring on a rebound after Trentadue had completed a cyclonic up-ice rush. Stouffville maintained this advantage and the score stayed at 6-4.
