Students gear up for Variety Show

With thirty practice days to go, students of S.D.S.S. are gearing up for the biggest single event of the season — Variety Show '88.

No two people are more geared up than Producer Robyn Duke and Director Kris Hoover. Also 'totally involved' are Dance Choreographer Tracy Blackwell and Skit Director Scott Rehill.

The staff advisor is Mrs. Juk.

Show dates are March 3, 4 and 5.

"I wanted to get involved," Kris Hoover told The Tribune.

"next year, (Grade 13), will be too busy."

Rehearsals are already underway with practices taking on a serious approach next month. Participants will also work out after school and on P.A. days.

Robyn and Kris are hoping for a good variety of talent this year including participation by the H.S. choir. "It'll be good to have them back," Kris says.

Altogether, close to 100 students will be involved. "Co-operation's been excellent," Kris concludes.

Town achieved its goals within 1987 budget-Mayor

Dear Jim:

I welcome the opportunity to extend to the residents of Whitchurch-Stouffville, a healthy, happy and prosperous 1988.

I want to express my sincere appreciation for their support and the part they have played, individually and collectively, in helping Council achieve in 1987, the goals established within budget.

We retain approximately 24% of the dollar for capital projects, operating and maintenance of our Town. Well over 60% of each dollar goes to Education and the balance to the Region of York. We have a modest budget, a small town, and requests for many necessary amenities.

I realize all the projects you may desire do not come to fruition. However, long-range planning will accommodate these requests in the future. Planning reserves, and some modest growth will help Council achieve these goals.

I am proud of the steps forward that we have accomplished.

I thank staff and all involved in this democratic process. I look forward to the challenge of the new year. Together, as a team, we will proceed in the best interest of all in many areas of endeavor.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call the Town Office for assistance.

Sincerely,
 Fran Sainsbury,
 Mayor
 Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville
